

Joint Wedding Speech

Example:

Father of the Bride (Tom): Good evening, everyone. I'm Tom, Jessica's dad, and this distinguished gentleman beside me is Bob, Ryan's father. We've been asked to give a joint speech tonight, which is fitting because we've been joining forces for years now to keep these two out of trouble.

Father of the Groom (Bob): That's right, Tom. When our kids first started dating, we thought we'd finally get a break. Little did we know we were just trading one set of headaches for another.

Tom: I remember the day Jessica told us about Ryan. I was thrilled - not just because he made her happy, but because I finally had someone else to blame for the dents in my car.

Bob: And when Ryan introduced us to Jessica, I was ecstatic. I thought, "Finally, someone who might be able to teach my son that socks don't belong on the coffee table."

Tom: Over the years, we've watched Jessica and Ryan's relationship grow. They've supported each other through thick and thin, good times and bad, and countless pizza deliveries.

Bob: Ryan has always been an, let's say, "interesting" kid. When he was five, he wanted to be a dinosaur when he grew up. Jessica, I'm glad you've managed to slightly adjust his career goals.

Tom: And Jessica, well, she's always been our little princess. Ryan, I hope you know that "princess" is just a fancy word for "someone who always gets their way." Good luck with that, son.

Bob: But in all seriousness, we couldn't be happier to see these two tying the knot. They complement each other perfectly, like peanut butter and jelly, or in their case, like Netflix and procrastination.

Tom: Jessica, sweetheart, you've made us proud in so many ways. Your kindness, your intelligence, and your ability to put up with Ryan's jokes are truly impressive.

Bob: And Ryan, my boy, seeing the man you've become and the way you love Jessica fills my heart with joy. Your mother and I couldn't be prouder.

Tom: As fathers, we're not losing a daughter and a son today. We're gaining...

Bob: ...a whole lot of expenses. Seriously, do you two know how much grandkids cost these days?

Tom: To Jessica and Ryan, may your love be as strong as our new combined credit card debt, and may your marriage be filled with more laughter than the time Ryan tried to propose and forgot the ring.

Bob: May you always support each other's dreams, have patience for each other's quirks, and most importantly, may you always remember whose turn it is to do the dishes.

Tom and Bob (together): To the happy couple! May your love story be long, your arguments short, and may you always remember - we're just a phone call away... unless you need money or babysitting. Cheers!
