Art Of Kosovo The Sacred Land:

Art of Kosovo Gojko Subotić, 1998 The Balkan Region of Kosovo near Albania was in the Middle Ages a center of exceptional artistic activity Closely bound to the sea and to European trading routes this territory was deeply influenced by Byzantine lands to the east resulting in a rich fusion of Eastern and Western styles Today more than 1 300 of these medieval monuments remain this volume represents the first time they are published for a Western audience BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Historical Dictionary of Kosovo Robert Elsie, 2010-11-15 As the seventh and probably last state to arise from the ruins of the former Yugoslavia Kosovo is the newest country in Europe For centuries Kosovo also known as Kosova was part of the Ottoman Empire and for most of the 20th century it was a province of what was once Yugoslavia After the military conflict in 1998 1999 and a period of administration by the United Nations Kosovo declared its independence from Serbia on February 17 2008 Focusing not only on Kosovo s turbulent recent years the second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Kosovo also relates the country s rich culture and long history This is done through a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Kosovo Kosovo and Metohija : Living in the Enclave Dušan T. Bataković, 2007-06-05 This collection of papers is devoted to the post war situation 1999 2007 in Serbia s troublesome autonomous province of Kosovo and Metohia Contrary to the widespread interest in the Albanian side of the problem this collection of papers focuses on the neglected developments among the discriminated harassed and persecuted Kosovo Serbs and other non Albanian ethnic groups Foreword Art and Identity in Thirteenth-Century Byzantium Antony Eastmond, 2017-03-02 The church of Hagia Sophia in Trebizond built by the emperor Manuel I Grand Komnenos 1238 63 in the aftermath of the fall of Constantinople to the Fourth Crusade is the finest surviving Byzantine imperial monument of its period Art and Identity in Thirteenth Century Byzantium is the first investigation of the church in more than thirty years and is extensively illustrated in colour and black and white with many images that have never previously been published Antony Eastmond examines the architectural sculptural and painted decorations of the church placing them in the context of contemporary developments elsewhere in the Byzantine world in Seljuq Anatolia and among the Caucasian neighbours of Trebizond Knowledge of this area has been transformed in the last twenty years following the collapse of the Soviet Union The new evidence that has emerged enables a radically different interpretation of the church to be reached and raises questions of cultural interchange on the borders of the Christian and Muslim worlds of eastern Anatolia the Caucasus and Persia This study uses the church and its decoration to examine questions of Byzantine identity and imperial ideology in the thirteenth century This is central to any understanding of the period as the fall of Constantinople in 1204 divided the Byzantine empire and forced the successor states in Nicaea

Epiros and Trebizond to redefine their concepts of empire in exile Art is here exploited as significant historical evidence for the nature of imperial power in a contested empire It is suggested that imperial identity was determined as much by craftsmen and expectations of imperial power as by the emperor's decree and that this was a credible alternative Byzantine identity to that developed in the empire of Nicaea Historical Dictionary of Kosova Robert Elsie, 2004 Kosova or Kosovo is a dependent region of Serbia part of the former country of Yugoslavia It was part of the province of Dalmatia in the Austro-Hungarian Empire before 1919

Art History and Visual Studies in Europe Matthew Rampley, Thierry Lenain, Hubert Locher, 2012-06-22 This book undertakes a critical survey of art history across Europe examining the recent conceptual and methodological concerns informing the discipline as well as the political social and ideological factors that have shaped its development in specific national contexts

Nationalism and Territory George W. White, 2000 Why do nations come into conflict What factors lead to the horrors of ethnic cleansing This timely book offers clear-eyed answers to these questions by exploring how national identity is shaped by place focusing especially on Serbia Hungary and Romania Moving beyond studies of nationalism that consider only the economic and geostrategic value of territory George W. White shows that the very core of national identity is intimately bound to specific places Indeed nations define themselves in terms of spaces that have historical linguistic and religious meaning as Serbs have clearly demonstrated in Kosovo These territories are concrete expressions of a nation's identity both past and present With his detailed analysis of the places that define national identity in Southeastern Europe White convincingly shows why territorial disputes so often escalate into war

Minorities in the Balkans: state policy and interethnic relations (1804 - 2004) Bataković, Dušan T., 2011-01-01

The Foreign Policy of Serbia (1844-1867): Ilija Garašanin's Načertanije Dušan T. Bataković, 2014 Contemporary analysis of Serbia's foreign policy in the middle of the nineteenth century has remained in a deep shadow of the Načertanije a document conceived in 1844 in Belgrade as a result of collaboration between Serbia's interior minister Ilija Garašanin and F. A. Zach the representative of the Polish political emigration from Paris led by Prince A. Czartoryski in the capital of the autonomous Principality of Serbia Prince Czartoryski author of Councils for Serbia's foreign policy in 1843 considered Serbia the sole semi-independent state among Slavs in South Eastern Europe a nucleus of a wider Serbia-led South Slav state that might endorse an anti-Russian and anti-Austrian policy as a support for his wider plans regarding the restoration of independent Poland The over-ambitious pan-Slav project of F. Zach Serbia's Slavic Policy was eventually modified by Garašanin to a more realistic and attainable plan in accordance with Serbia's modest demographic and military potential limited international experience and still humble administrative capacities Planning the unification of the predominantly Serb inhabited lands under Ottoman rule was appropriately adapted to the geopolitical realities of 1844 The foreign policy of Serbia under Garašanin during the rule of the pro-Austrian Prince Alexander Karadjordjević and Garašanin's premiership under Russophile Prince Michael Obrenovi was balancing between various political options that were dominating Europe and the Balkans between the 1848 Revolution and the Crimean War and the first Balkan Alliance Gara anin was continuously prudent and bold in pursuing realistic political ambitions regarding large scale anti Ottoman activities by building a network of confidants and agents throughout Turkey in Europe that was to forment a joint insurrection against the Ottoman rule During its last phase Gara anin s foreign policy gradually evolved into the direction of closer Yugoslav and Balkan cooperation Back cover
