Art Inquiry Lesson Plan:

Creating Vibrant Art Lesson Plans Kristin Baxter, 2019-04-05 Writing lesson plans is often considered busywork but it can be a useful path for discovering what's important about artmaking and teaching. This book shows teachers how to slow down, breathe, and linger over the process of unit and lesson plan writing to uncover how much this process can support them professionally, creatively, and personally. The user-friendly text offers guidance for selecting an art project for the unit and then zooms into the nitty-gritty of specific lesson plans, including how to identify materials for a project and how to construct classroom dialogue to help students develop ideas for their artwork. The text also considers standards, assessments, and extensions to other subject areas. Featuring accessible language, clear definitions, practical examples, and self-reflection prompts, this unique resource will help pre and inservice teachers create lesson plans that are useful to their specific contexts and methods of teaching. If you happen to be feeling weary, frustrated, or uninspired, this book sparks imagination, fuels hope, and gives you theories to support what you know needs to be done. From the Foreword by P. Bruce Uhrmacher, Christy McConnell, Moroye, and Bradley Conrad, educational researchers. Baxter invites us to slow down and consider the lesson plan as a creative catalyst to inspire our own artmaking, as well as a space to examine why and what we teach. Lisa Hochtritt, Maryland Institute College of Art. An inspiring and playful resource that is much more rewarding than typical lesson planning. It will surely spark your imagination with every flip of the page. Hailey Adlard, art educator, Parkland School District, PA.

Using examples of students' visually stunning artworks to illustrate what children can achieve through quality art instruction and practical lesson planning, Teaching and Learning in Art Education explores essential and emerging topics such as managing the classroom in art education, artistic development from early childhood through adolescence, catering towards learners with a diversity of abilities, integrating technology into the art field, and understanding drawing, painting, paper arts, sculpture, and textiles in context. Alongside a companion website offering Microsoft PowerPoint presentations, assessments, and tutorials to provide ready-to-use resources for professors and students, this engaging text will assist teachers in challenging and inspiring students to think creatively, problem-solve, and develop relevant skills as lifelong learners in the art education sector.

Lesson Planning with Purpose Christy McConnell, Bradley Conrad, P. Bruce Uhrmacher, 2020 This book takes readers on a journey through many pathways to engaging and meaningful educational experiences.
