Anti Twitter 150 50 Word Stories:

Anti-twitter Harold Jaffe, 2010 These 50 word stories are based on found texts from mainstream news sources and other public sites Jaffe sculpts them to reveal their inner core all niceties stripped away Now the true motives fears and sins of our age are on display for all who care to see Amidst an internet driven content boom meaning has virtually disappeared ANTI TWITTER s extreme brevity demonstrates by example that brief need not be dumbed down Though the stories describe a wide arc high and pop culture intimate and public sordid and exalted all subjects are equally laid bare by Jaffe s incisive stratagems EXPERIENCED: Rock Music Tales of Fact & Fiction Roland Goity, John Ottey, 2011-07-24 EXPERIENCED is an anthology of compelling narratives giving new insight into the drama of the rock music world from every literary angle and exploring rock s profound effect on our culture and its divine influence over the devoted faithful Cutting to the core truths of rock music culture Experienced is among the first rock anthologies to explore rock music and culture from the inside out Featuring works by some of the premier performers writers and chroniclers of rock music James Greer Jim DeRogatis David Menconi Brad Kava Fred de Vries and others You ll read about touring musicians and touring fans Label signings gone awry A late night DJ and a serial killer The evolution of life as a roadie These are stories unique to each writer yet you ll discover within them an experience that is universal Some are fiction and some non fiction but they re all true

Documentary's Expanded Fields Jihoon Kim, 2022 Documentary s Expanded Fields New Media and the Twenty First Century Documentary offers a theoretical mapping of contemporary non standard documentary practices enabled by the proliferation of new digital imaging lightweight and non operator digital cameras multiscreen and interactive interfaces and web 2 0 platforms These emergent practices encompass digital data visualizations digital films that experiment with the deliberate manipulation of photographic records documentaries based on drone cameras GoPros and virtual reality VR interfaces documentary installations in the gallery interactive documentary i doc citizens vernacular online videos that document scenes of the protests such as the Arab Spring the Hong Kong Protests and the Black Lives Matter Movements and new activist films videos and archiving projects that respond to those political upheavals Building on the interdisciplinary framework of documentary studies digital media studies and contemporary art criticism Jihoon Kim investigates the ways in which these practices both challenge and update the aesthetic epistemological political and ethical assumptions of traditional film based documentary Providing a diverse range of case studies that classify and examine these practices the book argues that the new media technologies and the experiential platforms outside the movie theater such as the gallery the world wide web and social media services expand five horizons of documentary cinema image vision dispositif archive and activism This reconfiguration of these five horizons demonstrates that documentary cinema in the age of new media and platforms which Kim labels as the twenty first century documentary dynamically changes its boundaries while also exploring new experiences of reality and history in times of the contemporary crises across the globe including the COVID 19 pandemic Democracy and Fake News Serena Giusti, Elisa Piras, 2020-12-30 This book explores the challenges that disinformation fake news and post truth politics pose to democracy from a multidisciplinary perspective The authors analyse and interpret how the use of technology and social media as well as the emergence of new political narratives has been progressively changing the information landscape undermining some of the pillars of democracy The volume sheds light on some topical questions connected to fake news thereby contributing to a fuller understanding of its impact on democracy In the Introduction the editors offer some orientating definitions of post truth politics building a theoretical framework where various different aspects of fake news can be understood The book is then divided into three parts Part I helps to contextualise the phenomena investigated offering definitions and discussing key concepts as well as aspects linked to the manipulation of information systems especially considering its reverberation on democracy Part II considers the phenomena of disinformation fake news and post truth politics in the context of Russia which emerges as a laboratory where the phases of creation and diffusion of fake news can be broken down and analysed consequently Part II also reflects on the ways to counteract disinformation and fake news Part III moves from case studies in Western and Central Europe to reflect on the methodological difficulty of investigating disinformation as well as tackling the very delicate question of detection combat and prevention of fake news This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of political science law political philosophy journalism media studies and computer science since it provides a multidisciplinary approach to the analysis of post truth politics Daily
