Brothers On The Run Fleeing Hitler Fighting Franco:

Brothers on the Run Pat Lorraine Simons,2013-04-05 Based on a true story Brothers on the Run takes you on a high velocity ride across pre World War II Europe In 1933 two teenage Jewish brothers barely escape death at the Nazis hands only to find themselves crisscrossing Europe as refugees whose survival depends on their luck daring and wits In 1936 when the US denies them entry the boys enlist as foreign soldiers in the Spanish Civil War a fateful decision that indelibly scars them brutally delivers them into manhood and serendipitously opens the door to freedom Escape from Hitler's Europe George Watt,2013-04-06 An absorbing story about how the Lincoln veteran George Watt managed to escape from Nazi occupied Belgium San Francisco Review of Books November 1943 American flyer George Watt parachutes out of his burning warplane and lands in rural Nazi occupied Belgium Escape from Hitler s Europe is the incredible story of his getaway how brave villagers spirited him to Brussels to connect with the Comet Line a rescue arm of the Belgian resistance This was a gravely dangerous mission especially for a Jewish soldier who had fought against Franco in the Spanish Civil War Watt recounts dodging the Gestapo entering Paris via the underground and finally crossing the treacherous Pyrenees into Spain In 1985 he returned to Belgium and discovered an astonishing postscript to his wartime experiences A story of what is best in human beings triumphing over what is worst John Sayles author of Yellow Earth One of those rare little narratives that engage the reader from the first page to the last It is about the human spirit and those willing to risk their lives for a stranger Library Journal A hell of an adventure story Ring Lardner Jr author of The Ecstasy of Owen Muir This is one of my favorite books about World War II and the first I have read that is about the Comet Line and the people who helped with running it Armchair Interviews This is an interesting and exciting account that provides a first person examination of the plight of an individual airman and insights into the scope risks and techniques of the Belgian and French underground movements Col Stetson M Siler USAF Ret Dark Peak Aircraft Wrecks 1 Ron Collier,Roni Wilkinson,1995-03-20 Civil and military aircraft types are represented from biplanes to modern jet fighters This is an invaluable guide for walkers and ramblers as well as for all those interested in flying and the history of aviation World War II Goes to the Movies & Television Guide Terry Rowan,2012-03-07 A complete film guide to all of your films and television shows that pertain to WWII Included are every WWII film produced throughout the world Historical and informative Stories behind the Hollywood Canteen USO shows War Bond drives those who served or were classified as 4F during the war Many interested stories Margined Groups in Spanish and Portuguese History Society for Spanish & Portuguese Historical Studies. Meeting,1989 In Search of Paradise Susan Gabori,1993-09-09 Susan Gabori has woven the narrative of each character in the Pace family from interviews she conducted with Italian immigrants and their families to present an illuminating picture of people who faced with a seemingly insensitive environment must find a way to survive without sacrificing their dignity and pride Each person finds a different way to hold on to some of the old while adapting to the new With In Search of Paradise Gabori promotes a deeper understanding of and respect for the immigrant experience The characters given a voice are Vincenzo the father Teresa his wife and their children Franco Roberto Angelina and Michele Separated by Vincenzo's search for work in Libya and later by World War II when the children are sent to a fascist school in Northern Italy and Vincenzo is sent to fight the British in Africa they attempt to retain the bonds of family and culture Reunited after the war the economic climate in Italy forces Vincenzo and Franco to leave for Canada in 1950 in search of a better future They are eventually joined by the rest of the family in Toronto

The Good Listener Neil Belton, 2012-05-15 Essential reading A horrifying account of the worst that human beings can do to each other Neil Belton's synthesis of biography and history is masterly Anthony Storr Sunday Times Helen Bamber went to Belson in 1945 to work with survivors of the camp She was just twenty Since then her life has been involved with the worst side of the last half century In 1985 at the age of sixty she set up an organisation devoted to helping victims of torture and to bearing witness against the fact of torture This is her story It is also a haunting unusual narrative of the post war world This 2012 edition offers a new introduction by the author The story of Bamber's life acts as a framework or prism through which some of the worst events of this century of horrors are addressed Times Literary Supplement Belton writes beautifully about an ugly subject with compassion but also with clarity Scotsman

A Time to Risk All Clodagh Finn, 2017-10-13 Clodagh Finn has travelled throughout Europe to piece together the story of this remarkable unknown Irish woman meeting many of those children Mary Elmes saved Here in a book packed with courage heroism adventure and tragedy her story is finally remembered The children called her Miss Mary and they remember her kindness still She gave them food and shelter and later risked her life to help them escape the convoys bound for Auschwitz Turning her back on a brilliant academic career Mary Elmes ventured into a war zone to help children in the Spanish Civil War In 1939 she fled Franco's forces but continued to work with refugees in France when the Second World War broke out In 1942 when it became evident that Jews were being deported to their deaths she smuggled children to safety in the boot of her car She was arrested and imprisoned by the Gestapo but went straight back to work after her release When the war was over Mary married and settled down never speaking about what she had done Her story was forgotten In A Time to Risk All her remarkable story is finally remembered as it should be A compelling portrait of an unsung Irish heroine of two wars Madeleine Keane Literary Editor Sunday Independent Brings to light the life of Mary Elmes showing a remarkable independent and courageous woman whose compassion knew no borders Yvonne Altman O Connor Culture and Education Director Irish Jewish Museum
