Brush And Shutter Early Photography In China:

Brush & Shutter Jeffrey W. Cody, Frances Terpak, 2011 Accompanies an exhibition held at the J Paul Getty Museum 8 February 1 May 2011 Brush & Shutter Jeffrey W. Cody, Frances Terpak, 2011 Photography in China Oliver Moore, 2021-12-24 Emphasizing the medium's reception among several Chinese constituencies this book explores photography's impact within new discourses on science as well as its effects in social life visual modernity and the media during China's transition from imperial to republican government General knowledge and academic teaching of early modern Chinese visual culture stops short of fitting photography into the larger context of visual practices and theories This study redraws the boundaries by making photography the central concern within changing priorities of visual representation and its functions during a period of major cultural and political change No other study draws on such intimate familiarity with the early glamour of photography as science commerce and communication in the various local conditions of China's cities and towns Joining a body of critical writing that examines photography's histories outside the familiar confines of the West this book looks beyond the tourist and imperialist gazes of photographer adventurers from the Western powers and Japan It defines instead the Chinese priorities of photographic vision that are abundantly evident in surviving photographs as well as in records as various as technical manuals and personal inscriptions Local practices and local knowledge are the keys to explain the highly successful indigenization of a medium as globalizing as photography with reference to Chinese society's own terms and practices This book will be of particular interest to scholars in art and visual culture the history of photography and Asian art The Global Flows of Early Scottish Photography Anthony W. Lee, 2019-05-30 Almost immediately after the invention of photography Scottish photographers took their clunky cameras on the road to capture the stories of peoples and communities touched by the forces of British imperialism For the next thirty years their journeys would take them far from their homes in the Lowlands to the Canadian wilderness and the treaty ports and rivers of China The Global Flows of Early Scottish Photography is about the interplay between these photographers' ambitions and the needs and desires of the people they met Anthony Lee tracks the work of several famous innovators of the art form including the pioneering team of D O Hill and Robert Adamson in Edinburgh Canada's first great photographers the Scottish immigrants William Notman and Alexander Henderson in Montreal the globetrotting John Thomson in Hong Kong and Lai Afong the first widely known Chinese photographer Lee reveals their pictures in the context of migration and the social impact wrought by worldwide trade and competing nationalisms A timely book it tells of an era when cameras emerged to give shape and meaning to some of the most defining moments brought about by globalization in the nineteenth century Beautifully written and richly illustrated in full colour The Global Flows of Early Scottish Photography weaves stories together to show that even the earliest pictures were sites of fierce historical struggle Photography and China Claire Roberts, 2013-06-01 With its lush and diverse landscapes ancient ruins and stunning architecture China is a photographer's dream Exploring this visually rich and evocative country Photography and China highlights Chinese photographers and subjects from the inception of photography to the present day Drawing on works in museums and archival and private collections across China the United States Europe and Australia Claire Roberts locates images from commercial art and documentary photography within the broader context of Chinese history She focuses on the images as well as the studios and individuals who created them describing the long tradition of Chinese artistic culture into which photography was first absorbed and subsequently expanded As she recounts the stories of practitioners from China and overseas who were agents in that process of change she also examines the commercial political and artistic purposes for which they used photography Featuring one hundred striking little known images Photography and China will make a significant contribution to photography Chinese art and twentieth century history

Developing Mission Joseph W. Ho, 2022-01-15 In Developing Mission Joseph W Ho offers a transnational cultural history of US and Chinese communities framed by missionary lenses through time and space tracing the lives and afterlives of images cameras and visual imaginations from before the Second Sino Japanese War through the first years of the People's Republic of China When American Protestant and Catholic missionaries entered interwar China they did so with cameras in hand Missions principally aimed at the conversion of souls and the modernization of East Asia became by virtue of the still and moving images recorded quasi anthropological ventures that shaped popular understandings of and formal foreign policy toward China Portable photographic technologies changed the very nature of missionary experience while images that missionaries circulated between China and the United States affected cross cultural encounters in times of peace and war Ho illuminates the centrality of visual practices in the American missionary enterprise in modern China even as intersecting modernities and changing Sino US relations radically transformed lives behind and in front of those lenses In doing so Developing Mission reconstructs the almost lost histories of transnational image makers subjects and viewers across twentieth century China and the United States

Relief and Rehabilitation for a Post-war World Samantha K. Knapton, Katherine Rossy, 2023-11-16 One of the world's first truly international humanitarian organisations the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration UNRRA was championed as a beacon of postwar philanthropy that sought to rehabilitate as well as provide relief This edited volume offers the first comprehensive study of the UNRRA and seeks to identify the key successes limitations and enduring challenges it faced in the postwar period Tracing the rehabilitation of displaced children in the camps of Germany and Austria to mountainous Greek villages without access to food or medical supplies and refugees in postwar China it will assess the immediate impact of UNRRA rehabilitation policy on postwar reconstruction international development and broader humanitarian processes Through these international case studies it will explore the ways in which a fundamental inability to define rehabilitation made it seemingly impossible to meet its objectives As a predecessor to modern specialised agencies such as UNESCO WHO and UNICEF studying the UNRRA is crucial for our understanding of the history of the United Nations the circumstances that shaped its future policies and the foundations of modern humanitarianism Zooming In Wu Hung, 2016-06-15 From the first sets of photographic records made by Western travelers to doctored portraits of Chairman Mao and the avant garde photographic performances of the post Cultural Revolution era photography in China has followed divergent paths In this book Wu Hung explores the multiple histories of photographic production in China using them to tell a larger story about China's shifting sociopolitical contexts and the different agendas technologies and aesthetics that have helped define its arts At the center of the book is a large question how has photography represented China and its people its collective history and memory as well as the diversity of Chinese artists who have striven for creative expression To address this question the author offers an in depth study of selected photographers themes and movements in Chinese photography from 1860 to the present covering a wide range of genres including portraiture photojournalism architectural and landscape photography and conceptual photography Beautifully illustrated this book offers a multifaceted and in depth analysis of an important photographic history The Oxford Handbook of Tourism History Eric G. E. Zuelow, Kevin J. James, 2025-02-24 The Oxford Handbook of Tourism History offers a critical survey of the development of the field that unites historical scholarship along thematic lines and uses examples from diverse places to examine a wide set of tourism policies practices and niches in a global transnational context

Modern Chinese Religion II: 1850 - 2015 (2 vols.) , 2015-10-20 The last of four two volume sets on the key periods of paradigm shift in Chinese religious and cultural history this book examines the transformation of values in China since 1850 in the secular realms of economics science medicine aesthetics media and gender and in each of the major religions Confucianism Buddhism Daoism Christianity as well as in Marxist discourse The nation and science are the values invoked most frequently with the market and democracy a distant second As in previous periods of fundamental change in Chinese history rationalization and secularization have played central roles but interiorization nearly disappears as a driving force Also in continuity with the past the state insists on an exclusive right to define and adjudicate orthodoxy Contributors include Daniel H Bays S bastien Billioud Adam Yuet Chau Na Chen Philip Clart Walter B Davis Arif Dirlik Thomas David DuBois Lizhu Fan David Faure Melissa Wei Tsing Inouye Ji Zhe Xiaofei Kang Eric I Karchmer Andr Lalibert Angela Ki Che Leung Xun Liu Richard Madsen David Ownby Ellen Oxfeld Volker Scheid Grace Yen Shen Michael Szonyi Wang Chien ch uan Xue Yu
