Levine, Margaret Levine Young, Ray Everett-Church, 2007-05-09 If you have e mail you have spam that annoying electronic junk mail that jams your inbox sometimes makes you blush and takes a lot of the fun out of your online experience Spam wastes thousands of hours and costs you the recipient of the stuff you don't want thousands of dollars in increased costs that your Internet service provider eventually passes along to you. In fact, a European survey in 2001 revealed that spam costs about 9.4 billion each year. Spammers spam because they're not paying for it; you are. The good news is you can fight back and Fighting Spam For Dummies tells you how. Find out where spam comes from. How to set up spam filters. How folders help filter out spam. What additional programs can help. Where and how to report spam. How best to lobby for spam control. You'll get the plain English explanation for activating any additional protection offered by your ISP and discover how to make the best use of any spam filter that came with your e-mail program. Fighting Spam For Dummies will arm you with information about making your address harder for spammers to grab. Why simply hitting delete isn't enough. Tracking down the source of the spam. What you can learn from e-mail headers. How spam filters work and why they aren't foolproof. Setting up the maximum level of filtration for your e-mail program and ISP. What information your ISP needs when you report spam. How and how not to complain. Adding protection with POPFile. Ways to protect your clients if you're a network administrator. The ultimate solution to spam has yet to be found, but these Internet-savvy authors give you the tools to help level the playing field. They also offer some solid suggestions for anti-spam laws and how you can join the war on spam. Internet Today! Ernest Ackermann, Karen Hartman, 2013-11-26. Internet Today! is as the name implies a survey of the components and facilities of the Internet; it is also a guide to its use, including a discussion of some features of the Internet followed by exercises designed to create competence in both understanding and implementing the features. Chapters include Introduction to the Internet and the World Wide Web. Using a Web Browser. The Basics of Electronic Mail and Using Netscape. E-mail. Finding Information on the Web.
