Fixers Zrinka Stahuljak, 2024-01-26 In this book Zrinka Stahuljak issues a challenge to scholars working in medieval studies to account for the history of translation and to experts in translation studies to read the work of medievalists Focusing on the term fixer she unpacks modern uses of the words interpreter and translator and restores them to their premodern origins as an active agent who performed a wide range of tasks as insider informant local guide broker of knowledge and transmitter of art For Stahuljak the fixer was a multifunctional intermediary not a mere translator or interpreter in the restricted modern sense but an enabler facilitator and mediator the engine driving the exchange of multiple linguistic social cultural and topographic forms of knowledge She proposes a paradigmatic shift for both medieval literary history and for the history of translation to confront and interrogate each other in their core disciplinary practices which promote national political and colonial agendas masked as neutrality Surveying a variety of texts from 1250 to 1500 including crusade treatises and travel writings accounts of pilgrims and spies chronicles and romances in both prose and verse and traversing an impressive range of languages including Latin Middle French German Italian and Spanish Stahuljak asks both medievalists and translation studies scholars to reconsider their assumptions and methods as a way to reconstruct a premodern precolonial inclusive world literature
