Employment Relations Amie Shaw, Ruth McPhail, Susan Ressler, 2018-01-01 Overview This is the second edition of the well-regarded local text Employment Relations. This new edition takes an even more practical approach to a complex area, considering both the industrial regulation and human resources dimensions of the employment relationship. As well as providing a comprehensive guide to employment relations in Australia, the text also offers a selective international comparative view on the management of the employment relationship. The text explains and emphasises the real-world connections between the important theories of industrial relations and human resources, which are key components of the employment relations discipline. The overarching aim is for students to gain a deeper understanding of the World of Work through the discipline of Employment Relations.

A Practical Guide to Congenital Developmental Disorders and Learning Difficulties Judith P. Hudson, 2014-04-24 To give children with congenital developmental conditions that manifest special learning needs and specific disabilities their best chance to succeed, early identification and appropriate interventions and support is necessary. This text highlights what to look for when there are concerns about a child's development. Practical and accessible, it is divided into three sections. Part 1 looks at the theory and policy context, discussing the social model of disability, the responsibility of health, social care, and education services to the child and family, and the role of reviews and assessment in recognising developmental disorders. Part 2 provides a reference guide to atypical developmental conditions and disorders. For each condition, aetiology, prominent theories, and research profile of features, including triggers and behaviours, diagnostic assessment procedures, and appropriate interventions are given, and links made to sources of further information and support. Part 3 explores practical issues: how to work sensitively and effectively with children and their families looking at the psychological implications of diagnosis and how to plan promote deliver and evaluate multi agency support Designed to support professionals working within a multi modal collaborative approach to assessment and intervention processes it is suitable for health visitors allied health therapists nurses teachers and social care practitioners It is also a useful reference for students in these areas learning about child development and includes critical reading exercises online searching tasks self assessment questions reflective activities and document analysis prompts
