Apologies Forthcoming Xujun Eberlein, 2009-01-01 Winner of the third annual Tarrt Fiction Award It was some decade The universities were closed Students were at war Poetry was banned And the word love unless applied to Mao was expressly forbidden Artists were denounced and many opted for suicide This is the time its madness its passion its complexity that Xujun Eberlein brings vividly to life in Apologies Forthcoming her moving collection of short stories about the millions who lived during China's Cultural Revolution An award winning writer who now lives in Massachusetts Eberlein has nothing to apologise for Her stories are electrifying About half of the stories take place during the years of the Cultural Revolution the other half in its aftermath How many come from personal experience is hard to say Eberlein who lived through the Cultural Revolution's decade as a child and teenager had a sister who died as a Red Guard and that event seems fictionalised in one of the stories Apologies Forthcoming shines a revealing light on some of the people whose lives were changed forever by the ten years that turned China upside down Eberlein does the great service of illuminating the interior lives of a peculiar generation many of whom are now leading China's phenomenal awakening

Mao's Children in the New China Yarong Jiang, David Ashley, 2013-10-08 Around 18 million young Chinese people were sent to the countryside between 1966 and 1976 as part of the Cultural Revolution Mao's Children in the New China allows some of them to tell their moving stories in their own voices for the first time In this inspiring collection of interviews with former Red Guards members of the first generation to be born under Chairman Mao talk frankly about the dramatic changes which have occurred in China over the last two decades In discussing the impact these changes have had on their own lives the former revolutionaries give a direct insight into how ex Maoists view contemporary China revealing an attitude perhaps more critical than that of most Western commentators These poignant memoirs tell the very personal stories of how people from all walks of life were affected by both the cultural revolution and Deng Xiaoping's economic reforms They cover subjects as diverse as marriage and divorce the privatization of industry family relationships universities and the stock market Mao's Children in the New China is essential reading for all those interested in learning more about the personal and social history of modern China
