A Place To Remember A History Of The Shrine Of Remembrance:

A Place to Remember Bruce Scates, 2009-11-04 This book charts the Shrine's history from the first fatalities of the Gallipoli landing to the present day

Commemorative Spaces of the First World War James Wallis, David C. Harvey, 2017-07-20 This is the first book to bring together an interdisciplinary theoretically engaged and global perspective on the First World War through the lens of historical and cultural geography Reflecting the centennial interest in the conflict the collection explores the relationships between warfare and space and pays particular attention to how commemoration is connected to spatial elements of national identity and processes of heritage and belonging Venturing beyond military history and memory studies contributors explore conceptual contributions of geography to analyse the First World War as well as reflecting upon the imperative for an academic discussion on the War's centenary This book explores the War's impact in more unexpected theatres blurring the boundary between home and fighting fronts investigating the experiences of the war amongst civilians and often overlooked combatants It also critically examines the politics of hindsight in the post war period and offers an historical geographical account of how the First World War has been memorialised within official spaces in addition to those overlooked and often undervalued alternative spaces of commemoration This innovative and timely text will be key reading for students and scholars of the First World War and more broadly in historical and cultural geography social and cultural history European history Heritage Studies military history and memory studies

Anzac, The Unauthorised Biography Carolyn Holbrook, 2014-09-01 Raise a glass for an Anzac Run for an Anzac Camp under the stars for an Anzac Is there anything Australians won't do to keep the Anzac legend at the centre of our national story But standing firm on the other side of the Anzac enthusiasts is a chorus of critics claiming that the appetite for Anzac is militarising our history and indoctrinating our children So how are we to make sense of this struggle over how we remember the Great War Anzac the Unauthorised Biography cuts through the clamour to provide a much needed historical perspective on the battle over Anzac It traces how since 1915 Australia's memory of the Great War has declined and surged reflecting the varied and complex history of the Australian nation itself Most importantly it asks why so many Australians persist with the fiction that the nation was born on 25 April 1915

The Great War and the Making of the Modern World Jeremy Black, 2011-03-17 This new work demonstrates how the outcome of the First World War has formed the modern world we live in today The First World War was the Great War for its leading participants In revisiting the events of 1914-1918 a century on Jeremy Black considers how we now look at the impact of the conflict across the globe and how it came to be World War I in our consciousness For millions both soldiers and civilians the conflict proved fatal The suffering and loss of the war provides much of its resonance and significance but this book seeks to throw light beyond this not least in asking how it ended in victory and defeat Casting aside the conventional narrative Jeremy Black returns to a vast range of original sources and investigates not only the key events of the war but its consequences in restructuring the old order As its significance has changed with time and not only with the loss of first hand testimony Black considers the struggle not only in its historical context but through its memorialisation today Imperial Culture in Antipodean Cities, 1880-1939 J. Griffiths, 2014-03-11 Drawing on a wealth of primary and secondary sources this book explores how far imperial culture penetrated antipodean city institutions It argues that far from imperial saturation the city Down Under was remarkably untouched by the Empire Exhibiting War Jennifer Wellington, 2017-09-21 A comparative study of how museum exhibitions in Britain Canada and Australia were used to depict the First World War The Crying Years Peter Stanley, 2017 The Great War of 1914 1918 affected all Australians and decisively changed the new nation They were The Crying Years according to writer Zora Cross who lost her brother in 1917 This visual history of Australia s Great War offers a different perspective on a period of time familiar to many It helps to connect the war overseas the well chronicled battles at Gallipoli Fromelles Passchendaele and Villers Bretonneux with the equally bitter war at home for and against conscription over loyalty and disloyalty Men faced life changing choices volunteer to fight or stay at home join the revolutionary unionists or break the strikes Women bore the burdens of waiting and worrying of working for charities or of voting to send men to their deaths Even children were drawn into the animosities as their communities fractured under the stress Prize winning historian Professor Peter Stanley of UNSW Canberra uses documents photographs artefacts and images from the collections of the National Library of Australia to evoke the drama and tragedy suffering and sacrifice pain and pity of Australia s Great War The Cultural History of War in the Twentieth Century and After Jay Winter, 2022-08-25 This Element is a user s guide to the cultural history of warfare since 1914 It provides summaries of the basic questions historians have posed in what is now a truly global field of research It is divided into three parts The first provides an introduction to the cultural history of the state focusing on the institutions of violence both political and military as well as introducing the key concept of the civilianization of war The second part addresses civil society at war It asks the question as to how do men and women try to make sense and attach meaning to the violence and cruelty of war It also explores commemoration religious life humanitarianism painting cinema and the visual arts and war literature and testimony The third part explores the family gender and migration in wartime and shows how modern war continues to transform the world in which we live today Sisters in Peace Kate Laing, 2023-11-03 Is preparing for war the best means of preserving peace In Sisters in Peace Kate Laing contends that this question has never been solely the concern of politicians and strategists She maps successive generations of twentieth century women who were eager to engage in political debate even though legislative and cultural barriers worked to exclude their voices In 1915 during the First World War the Women s International Congress at The Hague was convened after alarmed and bereaved women from both sides of the conflict insisted that their opinions on war and the pathway to peace be heard From this gathering emerged the Women s International League for Peace and Freedom WILPF which to this day campaigns against militarism and nuclear weapons In Australia the formation of a section of WILPF connected political women to a worldwide network that sustained their anti war activism throughout the last century In examining the rise of WILPF in Australia Sisters in Peace provides a gendered history of this country s engagement with the politics of internationalism This is a history of WILPF women who committed to peace activism even as Australia s national identity and military allegiances shifted over time a history that has until now been an overlooked part of the Australian peace movement I Glanced Out the Window and Saw the Edge of the World Catherine Halsall,2020-07-08 This book is about WAR not the causes and results not the planning and the campaigns not the artillery and the bombs It is about the heinous crimes committed by the combatants the horrifying experiences of civilians the devastation of cities and villages the killing and the dying the glory leading to revulsion and guilt and the assimilation of suffering that either ends in death or in the triumph of the soul It looks at the struggle of the church to remain faithful and the servants of the church who seek to bring sense and solace to the victims It discusses antisemitism racism and war itself from biblical perspectives It reveals the unjustifiable reasons for engaging in war and how this brings catastrophic results for all peoples the mental instability of the survivors and the loss and grief of those on the home front In war how can men and women carry out the actions that they do As Viktor Frankl writes After all man is that being who has invented the gas chambers of Auschwitz however he is also that being who has entered those gas chambers upright with the Lord s Prayer or the Shema Yisrael on his lips
