A Reader Of Classical Arabic Literature Resources In Arabic And Islamic Studies:

A Reader of Classical Arabic Literature S.A. Bonebakker, M. Fishbein, 2012-12-31 A Reader of Classical Arabic Literature is one of a very small group of resources in English for the teaching of intermediate and advanced level classical Arabic. Based on his lecture notes, the late Seeger Bonebakker designed a superb teaching text which he then asked his UCLA colleague Michael Fishbein to help him annotate and augment. The result is a truly valuable reader, one used widely in the United States and Europe, featuring judicious and instructive selections from such works as Ibn al Qifti's Inbah al ruwat al Tanukhi, al Faraj ba d al shidda and al Dhahabi's Siyar a lam al nubala among others. Selected Studies in Modern Arabic Narrative Roger Allen, 2019-02-15 No Western scholar has contributed as much to the study of modern Arabic narrative as has Roger Allen. His doctoral dissertation was the very first Oxford D Phil in modern Arabic literature, completed in 1968 under the supervision of Mustafa Badawi. That same year he took a position in Arabic language and literature at the University of Pennsylvania, the oldest professorial post in Arabic in the United States. Roger Allen has been phenomenally prolific: fifty books and translations, two hundred articles and counting, on Arabic language, pedagogy, on translation, on Arabic literary history, criticism, and literature. He is also one of the most decorated and acclaimed translators of Arabic literature. The present volume brings together sixteen of Roger Allen's articles on modern Arabic narrative, with a focus on genre, translation, and literary history, and features analyses of the works of Rashid Abu Jadrah, Bensalem Himmich, Yusuf Idris, Naguib Mahfouz, and Tayeb Salih. On Generosity Antonella Ghersetti, 2025-03-01 In Arabic Islamic culture, generosity is held in the very highest regard, and descriptions of charity, hospitality, and largesse are consequently an important component of Arabic literature. The Egyptian judge and man of letters Ibn Ab al d al Sakh w al M lik, who lived in Cairo and Medina in the ninth-fifteenth century and who practiced charity his whole life, compiled a work titled al ilyat al kuram, literally The Ornament of the Magnanimous. A significant example of a flourishing genre devoted to generosity and a testament to the intense cultural and literary activity of the author's time, al ilyat al kuram includes aphorisms, poems, and anecdotes about benevolent individuals whose generosity is exemplified by the gifts and money they lavished on others and by the many ways they provided aid to the needy. The lively examples of the liberality exhibited by everyone from rulers to ordinary people are intended to urge others to similar acts of generosity, charity, and assistance. On Generosity comprises an introductory study on the work and its author, the first reliable and critical edition of the Arabic text, an annotated English translation, and glossaries designed to make the text more accessible to nonspecialists. Al-Ma'mun, the Inquisition, and the Quest for Caliphal Authority John Abdallah Nawas, 2015-11-15 The inquisition Mihnah, unleashed by the seventh Abbasid caliph Abdallah al Ma mun r 813-833, has long attracted the attention of modern scholars of the intellectual, political, and religious history of the early Abbasid era. Because this event, which began in 820 and stretched through the reigns of two of al Ma mun's successors, appears at a convergence of prominent currents in systematic theology, rationalist thought, theocratic politics, and nascent trends in Shiism and Sunnism historians have seen it as the key to a wide array of puzzles and problems in early Islamic history In this incisive study John Nawas subjects the various proposed explanations of these events to a sober and searching analysis and in the process presents a new interpretation of al Ma mun s political and religious policies contextualized against the background of early Abbasid intellectual and social history Appended to the volume is a reprint edition of Walter M Patton s Ahmed ibn Hanbal and the Mihna Leiden 1897 which still has much that is useful for modern scholarship including one enormous additional benefit it contains most of the relevant passages in Arabic from the primary sources

Muslim Perceptions and Receptions of the Bible Camilla Adang, Sabine Schmidtke, 2019-07-24 The articles brought together in this volume deal with Muslim perceptions and uses of the Bible in its wider sense including the Hebrew Bible or Old Testament as well as the New Testament albeit with an emphasis on the former scripture While Muslims consider the earlier revelations to the People of the Book to have been altered to some extent by the Jews and the Christians and abrogated by the Qur n God s final dispensation to humankind the Bible is at the same time venerated in view of its divine origin and questioning this divine origin is tantamount to unbelief Muslim scholars approached and used the Bible for a variety of purposes and in different ways Thus Muslim historians regularly relied on biblical materials as their primary source for the pre Islamic period when discussing the creation as well as the history of the Israelites and the prophets preceding Mu ammad Authors seeking to polemicize against Jews and Christians were primarily interested in the presumed biblical annunciations of Mu ammad and his religion and or in perceived contradictions and cases of internal abrogation in the Bible These various concerns resulted from and had an impact on the ways in which Muslim authors accessed the scriptures

Arabic Belles Lettres Joseph E. Lowry, Shawkat M. Toorawa, 2019-09-15 Arabic Belles Lettres brings together ten studies that shed light on important questions in the study of Arabic language literature literary history and writerly culture The volume is divided into three sections Early Narratives comprises Joseph Lowry on the Qur an s allusive legal language Abed el Rahman Tayyara on matrilineal lineages in the context of Badr and Uh d Ruqayya Khan on the ramifications of public courtship in Udh r romances and Philip Kennedy on fir sah reading for signs and traces in medieval narrative Medieval Authors comprises Shawkat Toorawa on Ubaydall h ibn A mad ibn Ab hir s History of Baghd d Maurice Pomerantz and Bilal Orfali on Ibn F ris and the origins of the maq mah genre Everett Rowson on al Taw d and his predecessors a reprint of his 1996 ZDMG article and Ghayde Ghraoui on al Khaf j and his Ray nat al alibb Modern Egypt comprises Roger Allen on a cultural controversy in the Cairo newspapers of 1902 and Devin Stewart on preposterous boasting and ingenuity in on modern Egyptian Arabic Hadith, Piety, and Law Christopher Melchert, 2015-11-15 The publication of The Formation of the Sunni Schools of Law Ninth Tenth Centuries C E first as a University of Pennsylvania doctoral dissertation in 1992 and subsequently as a monograph in 1997 Studies in Islamic Law and Society Brill established Christoph Melchert as a preeminent scholar of the history of Islamic law and institutions Through close readings of works on fiqh meticulous unpacking of data in biographical dictionaries and careful attention to curricular pious pedagogical and scholarly practices Melchert has subsequently illuminated the processes and procedures that undergirded the development of Islamic movements and institutions in the formative period of Islam The present volume brings together sixteen of his articles including those considered his most important as well as ones that are difficult to access Originally published between 1997 and 2014 they are arranged chronologically under three rubrics hadith piety and law The material is presented in a new format updated by Melchert where appropriate and indexed The appearance of these articles together in a single volume makes this book a highly significant and welcome contribution to the field of classical Islamic Studies

The Economy of Certainty Aron Zysow, 2014-06-23 Aron Zysow's 1984 Ph D dissertation The Economy of Certainty remains the most important compelling and intellectually ambitious treatment of Islamic legal theory usul al fiqh in Western scholarship to date It continues to be widely read and cited and remains unsurpassed in its incisive analysis of the most fundamental assumptions of Islamic legal thought Zysow argues that the great dividing line in Islamic legal thought is between those legal theories that require certainty in every detail of the law and those that will admit probability The latter were historically dominant and include the leading legal schools that have survived to our own day Zahirism and for much of its history Twelver Shi'ism are examples of the former The well known dispute regarding the legitimacy of juridical analogy is only one feature of this fundamental epistemological division since probability can enter the law in the process of authenticating prophetic traditions and in the interpretation of the revealed texts as well as through analogy The notion of consensus in Islamic legal theory functioned to reintroduce some measure of certainty into the law by identifying one of the competing probable solutions as correct Consequently consensus has only a reduced role if any in those systems that reject probability Another more radical means of regaining certainty was the doctrine that regarded the legal reasoning of all qualified jurists on matters of probability as infallible The development of legal theories of both types that of Zahirism no less than that of Hanafism was to a large extent shaped by theology and most significantly by Mu'tazilism and subsequently by Ash'arism and Maturidism Zysow's important work is published here in full for the first time with updated references and some further reflections by the author

A History of the Encyclopaedia of Islam Peri Bearman, 2018-03-15 A History of The Encyclopaedia of Islam is the back story of the decisions that shaped the preeminent reference work in the field of Islamic Studies and of the labor that went into it a story that has not yet been told It is a record of a monumental century long project undertaken by the greatest scholars of its time of friendships and rivalries and of the extraordinary circumstances in which it took shape As a product of and a contribution to a century's evolving view of Islamic history civilization and religion this history sheds light onto the world of academia of the individual scholars who contributed to the encyclopedia's success and of a time Europe before and after two world wars and an age of publishing that dramatically changed in its lifetime
