The Oxford Handbook of Kenyan Politics Nic Cheeseman, Karuti Kanyinga, Gabrielle Lynch, 2020-02-14 Kenya is one of the most politically dynamic and influential countries in sub-Saharan Africa Today it is known in equal measure as a country that has experienced great highs and tragic lows In the 1960s and 1970s Kenya was seen as a success story of development in the periphery and also led the way in terms of democratic breakthroughs in 2010 when a new constitution devolved power and placed new constraints on the president However the country has also made international headlines for the kind of political instability that occurs when electoral violence is expressed along ethnic lines such as during the Kenya crisis of 2007-08 when over 1 000 people lost their lives and almost 700 000 were displaced The Oxford Handbook of Kenyan Politics explains these developments and many more drawing together 50 specially commissioned chapters by leading researchers The chapters they have contributed address a range of essential topics including the legacy of colonial rule ethnicity land politics devolution the constitution elections democracy foreign aid the informal economy civil society human rights the International Criminal Court the growing influence of China economic policy electoral violence and the impact of mobile phone technology In addition to covering some of the most important debates about Kenyan politics the volume provides an insightful overview of Kenyan history from 1930 to the present day and features a set of chapters that review the impact of devolution on regional politics in every part of the country

Business and Social Crisis in Africa Antoinette Handley, 2019-11-21 Much of the time when confronted with a crisis of national dimensions businesses do exactly what we expect them to do they look to their own survival Occasionally however firms in some contexts go beyond this Based on qualitative country based fieldwork in Eastern and Southern Africa Antoinette Handley examines how African businesses can be key responders to wider social and political crises often responding well in advance of the state She reveals the surprising ways in which business responses can be focused not on short term profits but instead on ways that assist society in resolving that crisis in the long term Taking African businesses in Kenya Uganda Botswana and South Africa as case studies this detailed exploration of the private sector response to crises including HIV AIDS and political violence crises introduces the concept of relative business autonomy exploring the conditions under which it can emerge and develop when and how it may decline and how it might contribute to a higher level of overall societal resilience

The History of Business in Africa Grietjie Verhoef, 2017-10-16 This book offers a comprehensive study of the history of African business By analyzing the specificities of African business culture as well as the dynamically changing African policy context the author sheds new light on the development of African enterprises markets and institutions The book covers a wide range of historical studies starting with the earliest exchange networks the new market opportunities resulting from European penetration the dualism of state owned companies and private enterprises during the twentieth century the role of foreign direct investments and multinational companies during the 1990s and the globalization of African business

City Boy: Chronicles of a Nairobi Life Dr. Frank Njenga, 2025-05-22 The mention of an African autobiography often evokes images of a want and penury a childhood sullied by poverty and hopelessness and the predictable rags to riches narrative Not so for City Boy In this bold and refreshing account Dr Frank Njenga a leading psychiatrist and author weaves a compelling tale of growing up in an affluent neighbourhood attending a once European only school enjoying foreign travel in childhood and all the trappings of a good upbringing His account of the Mau Mau period as well as the post independence era is captivating With candour and charm he invites readers into the world that shaped him a world of books travel privilege and the rich tapestry of people who influenced his journey It is a story that turns tables on the notion that rural poverty and adversity in childhood are the building blocks of a successful life Rather City Boy offers a new lens through which to view adolescence in the 1960s personal ambition and what it takes to scale the heights of professional growth In City Boy Dr Njenga rewrites the script on success with elegance honesty and a rare clarity of thought

De Gruyter Handbook of Women Entrepreneurs in Emerging Economies Helle Neergaard, Maribel Guerrero, Breda Kenny, 2024-12-02 Whilst women owned businesses have a significant positive impact on poverty reduction and social exclusion we know far too little about women s entrepreneurship in an emerging economy context This handbook aims to fill that void by giving voice to women entrepreneurs who are far too often overlooked or even invisible The chapters offer varied perspectives on the challenges that women entrepreneurs in emerging markets experience foremost among these the lack of resources education and access to finance as well as gender related inequalities and the impact of social expectations The handbook portrays how despite these challenges women use creative and work around strategies to access resources build networks and grow their businesses De Gruyter Handbook of Women Entrepreneurs in Emerging Economies brings together contributions from leading experts in the field and is a must read for academic scholars and postgraduate students interested in gender and entrepreneurship diversity

Women Entrepreneurs in Sub-Saharan Africa Marina Dabić, Léo-Paul Dana, Dina Modestus Nziku, Veland Ramadani, 2022-06-17 According to a 2018 World Bank report Africa is the only region with more women than men choosing to become entrepreneurs a phenomenon that is not the subject of adequate discussion This book reveals the latest research based understanding of the entrepreneurial activities of women in sub Saharan Africa Specially invited subject experts present salient dimensions of entrepreneurship by African women from environmental factors to motivations and influencers as well as financial and non financial constraints and highlight the significant role of cultural differences This book provides a mixture of theoretical conceptual and empirical research and fills the knowledge gap by presenting a wide range of opportunities and challenges faced by sub Saharan African women entrepreneurs This book will help policy makers and academic researchers in understanding the role of institutions and entrepreneurship policy in building a thriving entrepreneurial ecosystem in the region
