A Quest For Identity Race And Racism:

Handbook of Race, Racism, and the Developing Child Stephen M. Quintana, Clark McKown, 2008-07-10 Filling a critical void in the literature Race Racism and the Developing Child provides an important source of information for researchers psychologists and students on the recent advances in the unique developmental and social features of race and racism in children s lives Thorough and accessible this timely reference draws on an international collection of experts and scholars representing the breadth of perspectives theoretical traditions and empirical approaches in this field Theories of Race and Racism Les Back, John Solomos, 2000 20 Lola Young IMPERIAL CULTURE Identity And Culture: Narratives Of Difference And Belonging Weedon, Chris, 2004-07-01 Where does our sense of identity and belonging come from How does culture produce and challenge identities Identity and Culture looks at how different cultural narratives and practices work to constitute identity for individuals and groups in multi ethnic postcolonial societies Uses examples from history politics fiction and the visual to examine the social power relations that create subject positions and forms of identity Analyses how cultural texts and practices offer new forms of identity and agency that subvert dominant ideologies This book encompasses issues of class race and gender with a particular focus on the mobilization of forms of ethnic identity in societies still governed by racism It a key text for students in cultural studies sociology of culture literary studies history race and ethnicity studies media and film studies and gender studies Race and Racism in Russia N. Zakharov, 2015-03-23 Race and Racism in Russia identifies the striking changes in racial ideas practices exclusions and violence in Russia since the 1990s revealing how Russianness has become a synonym for racial whiteness This ground breaking book provides new theories and substantive insights into race and ethnicity in a Russian context Interrogating Race and Racism in Postsecondary Language Classrooms Huo, Xiangying, Smith, Clayton, 2024-01-10 Postsecondary language classrooms perpetuate racial discrimination and linguistic inequalities posing a significant problem for racialized students who face institutional barriers and erasure of their linguistic identities Interrogating Race and Racism in Postsecondary Language Classrooms edited by Xiangying Huo and Clayton Smith offers a transformative solution by confronting deeply ingrained racism linguisticism and neo racism in language education Through an intersectional lens the book exposes these issues and provides practical strategies to combat injustice fostering inclusive learning environments With topics ranging from power dynamics to anti oppressive pedagogies the book equips readers with tools to effect meaningful change By amplifying marginalized voices and emphasizing anti racist and anti colonial practices it empowers educators and policymakers to dismantle oppressive systems This comprehensive resource has the potential to reshape language classrooms and create equitable educational landscapes that value diverse linguistic and cultural backgrounds contributing to a more just and inclusive society Migrant Voices in Literatures in English Anu Shukla, 2006 Papers presented at the Second World Conference of World Association for Studies in Literatures in English held at Nagpur in January 2004 Racism and Identity in a Xenophobic World Secil E.

Ertorer,2024-12-16 This book is written against the backdrop of heightened racism and xenophobia in the contemporary world It elucidates how race operates in racially and ethnically diverse societies and becomes a divisive force The book offers an interdisciplinary multi level model for understanding the roots of racial prejudice and hatred towards the other by incorporating individual group institutional and societal factors Moreover it elaborates on the negative effects of racism on the identity and psychological well being of individuals and proposes strategies to counteract these issues An empirical study conducted with Asian American and Pacific Islander communities during the COVID 19 pandemic demonstrates the practical application of the theory The significant increase in anti Asian racism from 2020 to 2022 illustrates how easily xenophobia and racism can be triggered during times of rapid change instability and uncertainty While the primary focus is on the USA the study s findings are relevant to multiracial societies globally This book is intended for researchers and students of interdisciplinary social sciences interested in inequality racism and othering as well as those studying the Asian diaspora It is also of wider interest to anyone especially practitioners seeking to understand and dismantle the problem of heightened othering and racism

Migration, Diaspora and Identity Georgina Tsolidis,2013-10-07 Framed in relation to diaspora this collection engages with the subject of how cultural difference is lived and how complex and shifting identities shape and respond to spatial politics of belonging Diaspora is understood in a variety of ways which makes this an eclectic collection of papers Authors use various theoretical frameworks to explore diverse groups of people with a variety of experiences in a wide range of settings They are making sense of the experiences of women and men from a range of ethnic backgrounds negotiating identities through family work and education The micro dynamics of the everyday offer an evocative bottom up means of understanding the tensions implicit in living multiple belongings The common thread for the collection comes from the glimpses these authors provide into the remaking of our globalized world The aim is to shed light on racism dislocation and alienation on the one hand and on the other hand to consider how the complex power relations within the everyday mediate a sense of resistance and hope The papers are arranged around four themes 1 Multiple Belongings 2 Representing a Way of Being 3 Sexualised Identifications and 4 Marriage and Family
