Time, Tide and History Brigid Rooney, Fiona Morrison, 2024-06-01

Time Tide and History Eleanor Dark's Fiction is the first book length edited collection of scholarly essays to treat the full span of Eleanor Dark's fiction advancing a recent revival of critical and scholarly interest in Dark's writing. This volume not only establishes a new view of Dark's fiction as a whole but also reflects on the ways in which her fiction speaks to our present moment in the context of a globally fraught post pandemic Anthropocene era. Above all the revisiting of Dark's fiction is mandated by a desire to recognise the ways in which it anticipates vital debates in Australian literary and national culture today about settler colonialism and its legacies and with regard to the histories condition and status of Australia s First Nations people This volume interweaves varied topical themes from formal debates about modernism historical realism and melodrama to questions about modernity s time and space about gender and cultural difference and about the specifics of built and natural environments Time Tide and History intentionally loosens the conventions of literary scholarship by including other kinds of work alongside critical and scholarly readings a written dialogue between two contemporary historians about Dark s legacy and a biographical piece on the life and role of Eleanor Dark s husband Eric Payten Dark Bringing together the interwar fiction s feminist and modernist dimensions with the historical turn of The Timeless Land trilogy the essays in Time Tide and History collectively pursue ethical and political questions while teasing out the distinctive thematic formal and aesthetic features of Dark s fiction
