the Dalai Lama The story of how Buddhism set down its roots in India is enshrined within ancient stupas temples monasteries and caves the silent sentinels of this enduring faith Casting the Buddha takes the reader on a journey through the rich history of the enchanting Mahabodhi temple intricate Sanchi stupas Ajanta s vibrant murals Nalanda s grand ruins and beyond exploring how these spaces offered unique environments for art philosophy devotion and politics to intermingle Sinha follows the trail of the Buddha s footsteps as the latter went from enlightenment and teaching to an idea that inspired the creation of these grand monuments blurring the lines between the history and myth of his existence Some of these are now UNESCO World Heritage sites that draw millions of pilgrims from around the world while also playing a key role in global politics by firmly establishing India as a guardian of Buddhism and a diplomatic ally to its Buddhist neighbours A window into the life and times of Buddhists then and now this comprehensive account paints a remarkable picture of how these breathtaking sites once safe havens for kings monks traders and laity alike have survived centuries of tumultuous history to tell the story of human and stone Well researched insightful and richly illustrated Casting the Buddha infuses new life into a timeless faith

Places in Motion Jacob N. Kinnard, 2014-06-20 Jacob Kinnard offers an in depth examination of the complex dynamics of religiously charged places Focusing on several important shared and contested pilgrimage places Ground Zero and Devils Tower in the United States Ayodhya and Bodhgaya in India Karbala in Iraq he poses a number of crucial questions What and who has made these sites important and why How are they shared and how and why are they contested What is at stake in their contestation How are the particular identities of place and space established How are individual and collective identity intertwined with space and place Challenging long accepted clean divisions of the religious world Kinnard explores specific instances of the vibrant messiness of religious practice the multivocality of religious objects the fluid and hybrid dynamics of religious places and the shifting and tangled identities of religious actors He contends that sacred space is a constructed idea places are not sacred in and of themselves but are sacred because we make them sacred As such they are in perpetual motion transforming themselves from moment to moment and generation to generation Places in Motion moves comfortably across and between a variety of historical and cultural settings as well as academic disciplines providing a deft and sensitive approach to the topic of sacred places with awareness of political economic and social realities as these exist in relation to questions of identity It is a lively and much needed critical advance in analytical reflections on sacred space and pilgrimage

From Temple to Museum Salila Kulshreshtha, 2017-10-05 Religious icons have been a contested terrain across the world Their implications and understanding travel further than the artistic or the aesthetic and inform contemporary preoccupations This book traces the lives of religious sculptures beyond the moment of their creation It lays bare their purpose and evolution by contextualising them in their original architectural or ritual setting while also following their displacement The work examines how these images may have moved during different spates of temple renovation and acquired new identities by being relocated either within sacred precincts or in private collections and museums art markets or even desecrated and lost The book highlights contentious issues in Indian archaeology such as renegotiating identities of religious images reuse and sharing of sacred space by adherents of different faiths rebuilding of temples and consequent reinvention of these sites The author also engages with postcolonial debates surrounding history writing and knowledge creation in British India and how colonial archaeology archival practices official surveys and institutionalisation of museums has influenced the current understanding of religion sacred space and religious icons In doing so it bridges the historiographical divide between the ancient and the modern as well as socio religious practices and their institutional memory and preservation Drawn from a wide ranging and interdisciplinary study of religious sculptures classical texts colonial archival records British travelogues official correspondences and fieldwork the book will interest scholars and researchers of history archaeology religion art history museums studies South Asian studies and Buddhist studies

Buddhist Encounters and Identities Across East Asia ,2018-05-07 Encounters networks identities and diversity are at the core of the history of Buddhism They are also the focus of Buddhist Encounters and Identities across East Asia edited by Ann Heirman Carmen Meinert and Christoph Anderl While long distance networks allowed Buddhist ideas to travel to all parts of East Asia it was through local and trans local networks and encounters and a diversity of people and societies that identities were made and negotiated This book undertakes a detailed examination of discrete Buddhist identities rooted in unique cultural practices beliefs and indigenous socio political conditions Moreover it presents a fascinating picture of the intricacies of the regional and cross regional networks that connected South and East Asia
