Memories of the Great & the Good Alistair Cooke, 2015-03-03 Alistair Cooke knew met interviewed or reported on many of the most influential men and women of the twentieth century and in this collection profiles the twenty three he considered the most remarkable In his career of more than fifty years broadcasting the BBC radio program Letter from America and as the US correspondent for the Guardian for more than twenty five years Alistair Cooke met and mixed with many famous people In Memories of the Great the Good he shares his portraits of the men and women that he felt made the world a better more stimulating place We read about Franklin D Roosevelt s maintenance of his public image by means of a gentleman s agreement with the press and Lyndon Johnson s masterful backroom dealings Eisenhower at Gettysburg reveals a conversation between Cooke and the president touching on everything from their mutual love of golf to what it was like to grow up in a small Kansas farming town at the turn of the twentieth century Literary figures including P G Wodehouse Erma Bombeck and George Bernard Shaw are succinctly sketched And in the final pair of essays Cooke pays moving tribute to two of the men he admired the most Winston Churchill and golfing legend Bobby Jones

Rooting for the Home Team Daniel A. Nathan, 2013-05-01 Rooting for the Home Team examines how various American communities create and maintain a sense of collective identity through sports Looking at large cities such as Chicago Baltimore and Los Angeles as well as small rural towns suburbs and college towns the contributors consider the idea that rooting for local athletes and home teams often symbolizes a community s preferred understanding of itself and that doing so is an expression of connectedness public pride and pleasure and personal identity Some of the wide ranging essays point out that financial interests also play a significant role in encouraging fan bases and modern media have made every seasonal sport into yearlong obsessions Celebrities show up for big games politicians throw out first pitches and taxpayers pay plenty for new stadiums and arenas The essays in Rooting for the Home Team cover a range of professional and amateur athletics including teams in basketball football baseball and even the phenomenon of no glove softball Contributors are Amy Bass Susan Cahn Mark Dyreson Michael Ezra Elliott J Gorn Christopher Lamberti Allison Lauterbach Catherine M Lewis Shelley Lucas Daniel A Nathan Michael Oriard Carlo Rotella Jaime Schultz Mike Tanier David K Wiggins and David W Zang

All-Stars and Movie Stars Ron Briley,Michael K. Schoenecke,Deborah A. Carmichael,2021-05-11 Sports films are popular forms of entertainment around the world but beyond simply amusing audiences they also reveal much about class race gender sexuality and national identity In All Stars and Movie Stars Ron Briley Michael K Schoenecke and Deborah A Carmichael explore the interplay between sports films and critical aspects of our culture examining them as both historical artifacts and building blocks of ideologies values and stereotypes The book covers not only Hollywood hits such as Field of Dreams and Miracle but also documentaries such as The Journey of the African American Athlete and international cinema such as the German film The Miracle of Bern The book also explores television coverage of sports commenting on the relationship of media to golf and offering a new perspective on the culture and politics behind the depictions of the world s most popular pastimes The first part of the book addresses how sports films represent the cultural events patterns and movements of the times in which they were set as well as the effect of the media and athletic industry on the athletes themselves Latham Hunter examines how the baseball classic The Natural reflects traditional ideas about gender heroism and nation and Harper Cossar addresses how the production methods used in televised golf affect viewers The second section deals with issues such as the growth of women s involvement in athletics sexual preference in the sports world and the ever present question of race by looking at sports classics such as Rocky Hoosiers and A League of Their Own Finally the authors address the historical and present day role sports play in the international and political arena by examining such films as Visions of Eight and The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner. This important and unique collection illuminates the prominent role that sports play in society and how that role is reflected in film. Analysis of the depiction of sports in film and television provides a deeper understanding of the appeal that sports hold for people worldwide and of the forces behind the historic and cultural traditions linked to sports.
