- g. Congress of the Philippines; and
- h. All other administrative bodies or persons authorized by law to arrest and commit a person to jail.

Section 15. CLASSIFICATION - refers to assigning or to grouping of inmates according to their respective penalty, gender, age, nationality, health, criminal records, etc.

Section 16. CATEGORIES OF INMATES -The two (2) general categories of inmates are:

- a. Prisoner - inmate who is convicted by final judgment; and
- b. Detainee - inmate who is undergoing investigation/trial or awaiting final judgment.

Section 17. CLASSIFICATION OF PRISONERS - The four (4) main classes of prisoners are:

a. Insular Prisoner - one who is sentenced to a prison term of three (3) years and one (1) day to reclusion perpetua or life imprisonment;

b. Provincial Prisoner - one who is sentenced to a prison term of six (6) months and one (1) day to three (3) years;

c. City Prisoner - one who is sentenced to a prison term of one (1) day to three (3) years; and

b. High Risk Inmate - those who are considered highly dangerous and who require a greater degree of security, control and supervision because of their deemed capability of escape, of being rescued, and their ability to launch or spearhead acts of violence inside the jail. This includes those charged with heinous crimes such as murder, kidnapping for ransom, economic sabotage, syndicated or organized crimes, etc. Also included are inmates with military or police trainings or those whose life is in danger or under imminent threat.

c. Inmate Radicalisation and Recruitment in Prisons Clarke Jones, Raymund Narag, 2018-12-07 It is traditionally viewed that vulnerable inmates form captive audiences for violent terrorist offenders who in turn are destined to turn prisons into training grounds for militant activities all the while forming alliances with more hardened criminals to produce an even greater threat However there is limited empirical grounding to underpin these assertions Inmate Radicalisation and Recruitment in Prisons challenges existing perceptions about prison radicalisation Whilst not downplaying the seriousness of the prison radicalisation threat it seeks a more balanced interpretation of current discussion Drawing on original research in the Philippines and case studies from Australia the US Canada Indonesia the UK France the Netherlands and Belgium the authors posit an alternative view that suggests that the imprisonment of a terrorist may mark the beginning of physical disengagement and psychological de radicalisation Offering evidence based insights to help determine how best to house terrorist offenders this volume will appeal to students and researchers interested in fields such as Criminology and Criminal Justice Terrorism Prisons and Organised Crime Air Force Manual United States.
