Parts of a Manuscript

- Use headings and subheadings to break up text and organize information in a logical progression. Avoid abbreviations and citing references, figures, or tables in headings and subheadings. Maintain a consistent style and typeface for each level.
- Abstracts should summarize the main point(s) of an article and include the objective, methods, results, and conclusions of a study.

 - Acknowledgements are located between the body of the text and the references. They contain information about the publication, contributors, financial disclosure, funding/support, sponsors, and disclosures.

Ethical & Legal Considerations

- Use ethical practices when preparing materials for publication. Medical and scientific content is often regulated by ethical and legal standards.
