Research on New Media, Training, and Skill Development for the Modern Workforce Mentor, Dominic,2022-05-13 The abrupt shift to online learning brought on by the COVID 19 pandemic revealed the need for the adoption and application of new media virtual training and online skill development for the modern workforce However organizations are grappling with unanticipated complexities and many have recognized the gaps between online and in person competencies and capabilities with unaddressed needs There is an urgent need to bridge this gap and organically grow engagement and connectedness in the digital online space with new media tools and resources The Handbook of Research on New Media

Training and Skill Development for the Modern Workforce exhibits how both business and educational organizations may utilize the new media computer technology to best engage in workforce training. It provides the best practices to aid the transition to successful learning environments for organizational skill development and prepare and support new media educational engagement as the new norm in all its forms and finer nuances. Covering topics such as occupational performance assessment, personal response systems and situationally aware human computer interaction, this major reference work is an essential tool for workforce development organizations, business executives, managers, communications specialists, students, teachers, government officials, pre-service teachers, researchers and academicians.

The Geography of South Africa Jasper Knight, Christian M. Rogerson, 2018-10-03. This edited collection examines contemporary directions in geographical research on South Africa. It encompasses a cross section of selected themes of critical importance not only to the discipline of Geography in South Africa but also of relevance to other areas of the Global South. All chapters are original contributions providing a state of the art research baseline on key themes in physical, human and environmental geography and in understanding the changing geographical landscapes of modern South Africa. These contributions set the scene for an understanding of the relationships between modern South Africa and the wider contemporary world including issues of sustainable development and growth in the Global South.
