

Chapter 2 Active Reading Guide

The Chemical Context of Life

This chapter covers the basics that you may have learned in your chemistry class. Whether your teacher goes over this chapter, or assigns it for you to review on your own, the questions that follow should help you focus on the most important points.

Section 1

1. Define and give an example of the following terms:

Term	Definition
matter:	All physical substances.
element:	Chemical substances that cannot be broken down
compound:	A mix of two or more elements.

2. What four elements make up 96% of all living matter?

Carbon, Oxygen, Hydrogen, and Nitrogen

3. What is the difference between an essential element and a trace element?

While essential elements are needed in large quantities for an organism to live a healthy life, trace elements are needed in very little amounts.

Section 2

4. Sketch a model of an atom of helium, showing the electrons, protons, and neutrons, and atomic nucleus.

Study Guide George Karleskint,1991

Pediatric Critical Care Study Guide Steven E. Lucking, Frank A. Maffei, Robert F. Tamburro, Neal J. Thomas,2012-04-10 This is the first comprehensive study guide covering all aspects of pediatric critical care medicine It fills a void that exists in learning resources currently available to pediatric critical care practitioners The major textbooks are excellent references but do not allow concise reading on specific topics and are not intended to act as both text and study guide There are also several handbooks available but these are usually written for general pediatric residents and lack the advanced physiology and pathophysiology required for the higher level pediatric critical care practitioner

Critical Care Study Guide Gerard J. Criner, Gilbert E. D'Alonzo,2013-03-09 Critical care medicine is a dynamic and exciting arena where complex pathophysiologic states requiring extensive knowledge and clinical acumen are commonly found Caring for critically ill patients requires an extensive knowledge of basic pathophysiology as well as awareness of the appropriate diagnostic tests and therapeutic interventions Because this knowledge base crosses many different disciplines introduction to caring for the intensive care patient while exciting may also be intimidating This textbook is designed toward making the dynamic environment of the critical care unit understandable and the approach to the patient both logical and successful The book contains three components 1 description of the procedural tasks commonly performed for the critically ill patient 2 explanation of the most common pathophysiologic states encountered and 3 description of specific disease entities with details of their differential diagnosis diagnostic strategy and therapeutic plan This book also uses several educational approaches that we have found useful in our own teaching sessions and prior textbooks Clinical cases introduce chapters and highlight chapter segments to emphasize clinical relevancy As an additional study aid margin notes highlight important teaching points and facilitate easy review of chapter content To consolidate the principles outlined in each chapter review questions with full text explanations are provided at the end of each chapter All these elements help reinforce the most important messages for the reader

Geographical Thought Anoop Nayak,Alex Jeffrey,2013-12-02 Geographical Thought provides a clear and accessible introduction to the key ideas and figures in human geography The book provides an essential introduction to the theories that have shaped the study of societies and space Opening with an exploration of the founding concepts of human geography in the nineteenth century academy the authors examine the range of theoretical perspectives that have emerged within human geography over the last century from feminist and marxist scholarship through to post colonial and non representational theories Each chapter contains insightful lines of argument that encourage readers towards independent thinking and critical evaluation Supporting materials include a glossary visual images further reading suggestions and dialogue boxes
