Between Philosophy And Theology Contemporary Interpretations Of Christianity:

Between Philosophy and Theology Lieven Boeve, Christophe Brabant, 2010 Long past the time when philosophers from different perspectives had joined the funeral procession that declared the death of God a renewed interest has arisen in regard to the questions of God and religion in philosophy This book brings some of these philosophical views together to present an overview of the philosophical scene in its dealings with religion but also to move beyond the outsider's perspective Reflecting on these philosophical interpretations from a fundamental theological perspective the authors discover in what way these interpretations can challenge an understanding of today's faith

A Politics of Grace

Christiane Alpers, 2018-04-19 Christiane Alpers discusses the contribution and role Christian theology plays in developing of the democratic life in post Christendom societies She discusses the three major approaches to this debate public theology Radical Orthodoxy and post liberal Protestantism in order to illustrate the shared assumption that such an enhancement should be understood in terms of solving existing political problems The volume builds on and combines public theology's aspiration to craft a non triumphant political theology fit for a post Christendom context Radical Orthodoxy's hesitancy to embrace secularism as neutral centre for present democracies as well as post liberalism's Christocentric outlook Alpers engages with a wide variety of thinkers such as John Milbank Graham Ward John Howard Yoder Kathryn Tanner and Edward Schillebeeckx to suggest that a political theology in the post Christendom context could build on the faith that Christ alone has redeemed the whole world

William Desmond's Philosophy between Metaphysics, Religion, Ethics, and Aesthetics

Dennis Vanden Auweele, 2018-10-08 This volume collects seventeen new essays by well established and junior scholars on the philosophical relevance of metaxological philosophy and its main proponent William Desmond The volume mines metaxological thought for its salience in contemporary discussions in Continental philosophy specifically in the fields of metaphysics philosophy of religion ethics and aesthetics Among others topics under discussion include the goodness of being the existence and nature of God and the aesthetic dimensions of human becoming Interest in metaxological philosophy has been on the rise in recent years and this volume provides both a practical introduction and thorough engagements with it by experts in the field The volume concludes with a series of responses by William Desmond on the issues raised by the contributors

Christian Approaches to International Affairs J. Troy, 2012-08-21 Troy analyses how the understanding of religion in Realism and the English School helps in working towards the greater good in international relations studying religion within the overall framework of international affairs and the field of peace studies

Eastern Christian Approaches to Philosophy James Siemens, Joshua Matthan Brown, 2022-10-05 With few exceptions the field of Eastern Christian studies has primarily been concerned with historical critical analysis hermeneutics and sociology For the most part it has not attempted to bring Eastern Christian philosophy into serious engagement with contemporary thought This volume seeks to redress the matter by bringing the Eastern Christian tradition into a meaningful dialogue with contemporary philosophy It boasts a diverse group of scholars specialists in ancient philosophy analytic philosophy and continental philosophy who engage with a wide range of pressing issues Among other things it addresses such topics as contemporary atheism the metaphysics of action religious epistemology the philosophy of language bioethics the philosophy of race and human rights In so doing it aims to introduce contemporary readers to unique perspectives and novel arguments often overlooked by mainstream anglophone philosophy

The Adventure of Weak Theology Štefan Štofaník, 2018-10-16 In this distinctive exploration of John D Caputo's work Štefan Štofaník traces Caputo's journey of philosophical discovery from his earlier more conventional academic writings to his later almost confessional works of weak theology and his deep engagement with Derrida Štofaník draws upon Caputo's life story to help explain sudden shifts in Caputo's thinking offers intricate readings of philosophical passages that have all too often been taken for granted and joins in Caputo's effort to find a theology that can be trusted and that does not rely upon dogmatic and hierarchical authority At the same time Štofaník subtly disagrees with aspects of Caputo's view and turns to the work of Antoine de Saint Exupéry as a way to suggest that one cannot take leave of the tradition of theology as easily as Caputo thinks At times The Adventure of Weak Theology reads like a letter to Caputo and Štofaník's own passion for theology his deep understanding of Caputo's work and his gift for writing makes this an immensely appealing book for both admirers and critics of Caputo

Reading the Liturgy Juliette J. Day, 2014-03-13 This is a unique contribution to discussions within churches about the provision of suitable words for liturgical worship and to debates among scholars about liturgical hermeneutics as well as offering a new methodological paradigm for liturgical studies to inspire students and researchers By combining insights from literary and linguistic studies with those from historical and contemporary liturgical studies Juliette Day investigates the nature of a text in relation to unscripted speech how authors and worshipers make use of genre narrative and other texts how the textuality of the liturgy as well as its ritual context affect the sort of language used in worship and what implicit meanings are conveyed in the way liturgical texts are printed in books Day discusses the history of liturgical texts and their function as well as liturgical genres and narratives She examines the function of language in liturgical worship and emphasizes its meaning for readers worshipers and speakers Day applies insights from literary and linguistic studies to liturgical texts in a comprehensive fashion making it accessible to a broad readership

Between Faith and Belief Joeri Schrijvers, 2016-05-01 What is to be done at the end of metaphysics Joeri Schrijvers's contemporary philosophy of religion takes up this question originally posed by Reiner Schürmann and central to continental philosophy The book navigates the work of thinkers who have addressed such metaphysical concerns including Martin Heidegger Emmanuel Levinas Jean-Luc Nancy Jean-Luc Marion Peter Sloterdijk Ludwig Binswanger Jacques Derrida and more recently John D Caputo Mary Jane Rubenstein and Martin Heidegger Notably Schrijvers engages both those who would deconstruct Christianity and those who remain within this tradition offering an option that is between between Christianity and atheism between progressive and conservative between faith and belief Ultimately Schrijvers confronts the end of metaphysics with a phenomenology of love and community arguing for the radical primacy of togetherness

Foundations of Contemporary Interpretation V. Philips Long, Richard A. Muller, Vern S. Poythress, 1996 This one volume edition of the Foundations of Contemporary Interpretation series explores current issues in the interpretation of the Bible from the perspective of specific academic disciplines history literary criticism science and theology Deconstruction and the Spirit Esteban Solís, 2024-02-28 Deconstructive faith experiences are growing in number throughout global Christianity Factors like globalization individualism education post colonial experiences fundamentalism connectivity and others contribute to accelerate this trend and shape the environment of faith communities that find themselves amongst increasingly postmodern tendencies Many pastors are deciding to ignore the situation by rejecting deconstruction altogether while others are embracing it blindly Since an overwhelming number of churches worldwide embrace Pentecostalism Esteban Solis proposes a pastoral response from a distinctively Pentecostal perspective that engages deconstruction of faith critically while staying open to conceive it as a tool for Spirit led discipleship that can produce a more mature faith The book examines six affirmations made by Jacques Derrida that explain deconstruction Each of these is contrasted with specific examples of cultural changes taking place in Costa Rica Peter's experience at the house of Cornelius and a Pentecostal perspective By exploring a variety of authors Solis identifies different tools that can help pastors to better understand the experience of deconstruction while engaging in discipleship practices that can produce mature believers in a postmodern era
