Beyond Belief Early Christian Paths Toward Transformation:

Beyond Belief, Beyond Conscience Jack N. Rakove, 2020-05-01 In Beyond Belief Beyond Conscience Pulitzer Prize winning author Jack Rakove makes broad claims about how religious freedom affects us He contrasts the radical course of American developments with the more complicated ways in which Europeans tried to promote religious tolerance He argues that both freedom of conscience and disestablishment were critical constitutional principles whose significance we no longer fully appreciate Rakove explains why Jefferson's and Madison's understanding of these concepts were influential to their constitutional thinking And he examines some of our contemporary controversies over church and state from the vantage point not of legal doctrine but of the deeper history that gave the U S its unique approach to religious freedom Religious Transformation in Western Society (Routledge Revivals) Harvie Ferguson, 2010-12 Originally published in 1992 this remarkable book challenges many of the assumptions governing the Sociology of Religion and the Sociology of Culture by arguing that Western religion is neither science nor morality it is the promise of happiness Learned and incisive it will be essential reading for students of religion culture and anyone interested in the character of Modernity Catechumenal Pathways for Married Life Dicastery of Laity, Family and Life, 2023-05-22 In every age the Church must proclaim anew the beauty and abundance of grace contained in the Sacrament of Marriage Married couples constitute the majority of the faithful and they are often pillars of support in parishes schools apostolates volunteer groups and almost every other Catholic institution Beginning with his apostolic exhortation Amoris Laetitia Pope Francis has expressed his desire for the Church to offer a better and more thorough preparation of engaged couples for marriage The Holy Father has called for a relatively broad approach inspired by the baptismal catechumenate that would enable couples to celebrate the Sacrament of Marriage with greater awareness beginning with an experience of faith and personal encounter with Jesus Catechumenal Pathways for Married Life provides pastoral guidelines for dioceses and parishes in strengthening preparation for the Sacrament of Marriage By investing renewed energy toward this effort the Church can help couples understand the gift of the Sacrament of Marriage the meaning of spousal love and marriage as their authentic vocation Manifestoes and Transformations in the Early Modernist City Professor Christian Hermansen Cordua, 2012-11-28 The industrialization of the nineteenth century European city facilitated developing conceptions of the model city and allowed for large scale urban transformations The urban discourse in the latter half of the nineteenth century was consequently dominated by a dialectic exchange between the ideal and the practical a debate played out in the formation of the modern metropolis Manifestoes and Transformations is the first work to deal with urban utopias and their relationship with actual urban interventions Bringing together a carefully chosen wide ranging team of experts the book provides a broad contextual exploration of the ideas and urban practices which are the foundations of our conception of the contemporary city As such it is a valuable resource for students interested in the formation of the modernist city Beyond Church and State Matthew Scherer, 2013-03-29 Secularism is often imagined in Thomas Jefferson's words as a wall of separation between Church and State. This book moves past that standard picture to argue that secularism is a process that reshapes both religion and politics. Borrowing a term from religious traditions, the book goes further to argue that this process should be understood as a process of conversion. Matthew Scherer studies Saint Augustine, John Locke, John Rawls, Henri Bergson, and Stanley Cavell to present a more accurate picture of what secularism is, what it does, and how it can be reimagined to be more conducive to genuine democracy. Beyond Self-Help:

The current age marks the transition from modernity to postmodernity, a period as impactful to the Western sensibility as any previous era. The role of religion and the future of Christianity are at stake. At this time of transition, many thoughtful individuals find themselves at a quandary, having reached a critical stage in their spiritual journey. Prompted by academia, science, reason, culture, and their own experience, they feel compelled to choose between the beliefs they inherited as children and the claims of science, reason, pluralism, and secularism. Beyond Belief suggests that one need not take an either/or approach on these issues; there is a better way, one that embraces adventure and ambiguity science and religion reason and faith evolution and creation and finds ways to live creatively with realities for which there are no easy explanations Building on a paradigmatic journey of faith that involves three stages precritical critical and postcritical understanding Beyond Belief describes the quest for God and for authentic faith in the twenty first century The key point for this understanding is to replace belief with faith acknowledging that belief in doctrines is not central since they are themselves unprovable This new theological perspective requires rethinking many of our cherished doctrines including our understanding of God Jesus Scripture prayer miracles and revelation

Beyond Conversion and Syncretism avid,,Miles Richardson,2011-10-01 The globalization of Christianity its spread and appeal to peoples of non European origin is by now a well known phenomenon Scholars increasingly realize the importance of natives rather than foreign missionaries in the process of evangelization This volume contributes to the understanding of this process through case studies of encounters with Christianity from the perspectives of the indigenous peoples who converted More importantly by exploring overarching general terms such as conversion and syncretism and by showing the variety of strategies and processes that actually take place these studies lead to a more nuanced understanding of cross cultural religious interactions in general from acceptance to resistance thus enriching the vocabulary of religious interaction The contributors tackle these issues from a variety of disciplinary perspectives history anthropology religious studies and present a broad geographical spread of cases from China Vietnam Australia India South and West Africa North and Central America and the Caribbean

Conflict and Conversion in Sixteenth Century Central Mexico Robert H. Jackson,2013-04-25 In the sixteenth century Franciscan Dominican and Augustinian missionaries attempted to convert the native populations of central Mexico The native peoples generally viewed the new religion in terms very different from that of the missionaries As conflict broke out after 1550 as Spaniards invaded the Chichimeca frontier the frontier between sedentary and nomadic natives the missionaries faced new challenges on both sides of the frontier Some sedentary natives resisted evangelization and the missionaries saw themselves in a war against Satan and his minions The Augustinians assumed a pivotal role in the evangelization campaign on both sides of the Chichimeca frontier and employed different methods in the effort to convince the natives to embrace the new faith and to defeat Satan s designs They used graphic visual aids and the threat of an eternity of suffering in hell to bring recalcitrant natives such as the Otomi of the Mezquital Valley into the fold
