Beyond the Horizon Colin Angus, 2010-02-12 In June 2004 Colin Angus left Vancouver on his bicycle Nearly two years later he rolled back in looking like a castaway and having completed the first human powered circumnavigation of the globe Angus cycled skied and rowed a route that took him to Alaska across the Bering Sea and the Siberian winter across Europe from Moscow to Portugal then across the Atlantic to Costa Rica a 156 day rowing odyssey From there it was a short 8 300 kilometre ride back to Vancouver Along the way he burned through 4 000 chocolate bars 72 inner tubes 250 kgs of freeze dried foods 31 dorado fish caught from the sea 2 offshore rowboats 4 bicycles 80 kgs of clothing And he showed the world that if he can travel 43 000 kilometres without polluting the planet then the rest of us can get off our butts and clean up our own acts We lay in the rowboat cabin as the seas swelled and the sky boiled like a devil's cauldron Slanting yellow sun beams cut between black squalls and corrugated cirrus clouds interlaced the remaining areas of blue Huge anvil heads roiled and billowed like slow moving atomic explosions Flashes of lightning illuminated the IMAX screen of the horizon Such energy and volatility would have been breathtakingly beautiful if we had been watching from nearly anywhere else and if it weren't for the fact that it was all just a prelude to a killer storm It was hard to believe that yet another tropical cyclone was heading our way We had chosen the worst hurricane season in recorded history to make our five month 10 000 km unsupported rowboat crossing of the Atlantic Ocean Now two months into our voyage it looked very likely our expedition might come to an abrupt end Our voyage across the Atlantic was only a part of a much larger expedition an attempt to complete the first human powered circumnavigation of the planet So far we had trekked skied cycled canoed and rowed non stop across three continents and were half way across our second ocean Now as I huddled in the dog house sized cabin with my fianc e waiting for the Hurricane Epsilon to reach us I cursed myself for ever believing I could achieve such an impossible quest From Beyond the Horizon "Beyond the Horizon" John H. Whalen,2012-11-15 Beyond the Horizon is about a young man s search for himself and his purpose in life The book takes place in the future after a nuclear holocaust was released upon the world After the death of his mother Jessica Miles goes in search of his father John who had not returned to their village after several years He starts out his adventure with his large dog A len Miles rescues the beautiful Sara from some grotesque man creatures While exploring this primordial world they have many adventures which include evil shape shifters witches that practice the dark arts monster rats and the dreaded demon beasts As they travel on together Sara and Miles become very close and Miles begins to have feelings that he doesn t understand They also learn to continue to seek what is Beyond the Horizon Beyond Horizons Carleton Mitchell,1953
