Beyond Lion Rock Gavin Young,1988-01-01 Beyond Lion Rock Gavin Young,2012-04-26 In 1946 Roy Farrell and Syd de Kantzow s beloved battered wartime DC 3 touched down in Shanghai for the first time On board was a cargo of morning coats and toothbrushes from New York forging the first post war supply route across the treacherous eastern Himalayas The international airline now known as Cathay Pacific was born Gavin Young tells the swashbuckling story of an empire of the air a thrilling action packed adventure that began in an era closer to Biggles and biplanes held together by wire and safety pins than to our own Pioneers like Farrell and de Kantzow would have had plenty of time to enjoy the dawn over Kangchebjunga Would thye think of us with envy or contempt cruising seven miles up with hundreds of passengers air conditioning i flight concerts movies hot four course meals with an elaborate wine line and all mod cons All this in forty years Could the world have changed so much and so fast This is Gavin Young himself eloquently reflecting on the extraordinary changes in air travel There can be little doubt where his own sympathies lie

China Bound Robert Bickers,2020-03-05 From its origins in Liverpool in 1816 one unusual British firm has threaded a way through two centuries that have seen tumultuous events and epochal transformations in technologies and societies John Swire Sons a small trading company that began by importing dyes cotton and apples from the Americas now directs a highly diversified group of interests operating across the globe but with a core focus on Asia From 1866 its fate was intertwined with developments in China with the story of steam and later of flight and with the movements of people and of goods that made the modern world China Bound charts the story of the firm its family owners and staff its operations its successes and its disasters as it endured wars uprisings and revolutions the rise and fall of empires China s Britain s Japan s and the twists and turns of the global economy This is the story of a business that reshaped Hong Kong developed Cathay Pacific Airways dominated China s pre Second World War shipping industry and helped pioneer containerization Robert Bickers remarkable new book is the history of a business and of its worlds of modern China Britain and of the globalization that entangled them of compradors ship owners and seamen sugar travellers tea tasters and stuff merchants revolutionaries pirates and Taipans Essential reading for anyone with an interest in global commerce China Bound provides an intimate history that helps explain the shape of Asia today

International Bibliography of Business History Francis Goodall,Terry Gourvish,Steven Tolliday,2013-12-16 The field of business history has changed and grown dramatically over the last few years There is less interest in the traditional company centred approach and more concern about the wider business context With the growth of multi national corporations in the 1980s international and inter firm comparisons have gained in importance In addition there has been a move towards improving links with mainstream economic financial and social history through techniques and outlook The International Bibliography of Business History brings all of the strands together and provides the user with a comprehensive guide to the literature in the field The Bibliography is a unique volume which covers the depth and breadth of research in business history This exhaustive volume has been compiled by a team of subject specialists from around the world under the editorship of three prestigious business historians

Hong Kong Takes Flight John D. Wong, 2024-11-01 Commercial aviation took shape in Hong Kong as the city developed into a powerful economy Rather than accepting air travel as an inevitability in the era of global mobility John Wong argues that Hong Kong's development into a regional and global airline hub was not preordained By underscoring the shifting process through which this hub emerged Hong Kong Takes Flight aims to describe globalization and global networks in the making Viewing the globalization of the city through the prism of its airline industry Wong examines how policymakers and businesses asserted themselves against international partners and competitors in a bid to accrue socioeconomic benefits negotiated their interests in Hong Kong's economic success and articulated their expressions of modernity

Hubbing for Tourists Evan R. Ward, 2023-09-05 Dubai International Airport DXB Emirates Airlines and the Burj al Arab Changi International Airport SIN Singapore Airlines and Marina Bay Sands Chek Lap Kok HKG Cathay Pacific and The Peninsula Hotel Kingsford Smith SYD Qantas Airlines and the Wentworth Hotel What do these collective entities have in common Not only do they link global air hubs with city-centric long haul airlines and destination-worthy hotels but they are the product of a distinct strategy to boost tourism development through the synergies created by aviation development This volume explores the evolution of tourism development through synergies created by airline airport and hotel development in the Persian Gulf namely Dubai Southeast Asia primarily Singapore and East Asia mainly Hong Kong during the twentieth and twenty-first centuries These hubs included but went beyond traditional models of hotel development as models for economically viable tourism programs particularly after World War II The book also examines how such systems integrated travelers airlines and airports in Australasia and Europe while at the same time competing with imperial systems of airport and airline development This book illuminates the strategies behind and competition between cities during the current century for air traffic tourists and airlines transiting between Europe Southeast Asia and Australasia

The Cityscapes of Taipei, Hong Kong, and Singapore during the Cold War Tze-ki Hon, Ying-kit Chan, 2025-10-01 This volume presents a comparative analysis of three key cities Hong Kong Singapore and Taipei during the Cold War Strategically positioned within international trade networks these cities also served as critical nodes for both regional conflicts and cooperation The comparison primarily focuses on their urban landscapes drawing on the memories embedded in their collective memoryscapes the imagery presented in their filmscapes and the perceptions of their inhabitants as reflected in fiction and films that portrayed urban life and the experiences of ordinary people The Cityscapes of Taipei Hong Kong and Singapore during the Cold War explores both the shared characteristics of these cities as frontiers in the bipolar global system divided between Communism and the Free World and their distinctive features as unique spaces shaped by their own meanings and opportunities

Speedbird Robin Higham,2013-05-30 Between 1939 and 1946 BOAC the British Overseas Airways Corporation was the nationalised airline of Great Britain and between 1946 and 1974 as such it exclusively operated all long haul British flights With its iconic Speedbird logo and its central role in the glamorous jet age of the 1950s and 1960s BOAC achieved a near cult status with admirers around the globe Yet to date there has been no comprehensive history of the organisation covering its structure fleet and the role it played in the critical events of the age from World War II to the end of empire a period when BOAC played a pivotal part in projecting British political power even as that power was waning During World War II BOAC operated a limited wartime service and prepared for the return of commercial flight in the postwar era But it was in the service of Britain s colonies and latterly the process of decolonisation that BOAC achieved its most pivotal role The development of flight technology enabled much faster connections between Britain and her imperial possessions as the colonies prepared for independence BOAC ferried diplomats politicians and colonial administrators between London and the far flung corners of Africa and Asia in much faster times than had previously been possible In this book acclaimed historian Robin Higham presents a unique comprehensive study of BOAC from the early jet travel of the de Havilland Comet and the Vickers VC10 to the dawn of supersonic passenger aviation Highly illustrated and meticulously researched using previously unseen sources this book will be essential reading for all aviation enthusiasts and anyone interested in the history of modern Britain
