Community-University Engagement: A Process for Building Democratic Communities Tami L. Moore, 2014-04-29 As the emphasis on economic development through community university engagement intensifies educators and policy makers must learn to think differently about the engagement process This is particularly true when a narrowly defined group of leaders sets the engagement agenda and those who are traditionally underrepresented continue to be marginalized in the conversations about their own futures Emphasizing the importance of community as a context for engagement and building strong relationships over time Moore calls on institutional leaders to intentionally facilitate broad participation by all members of a community in discussions about how and in what direction the community will develop This is the second issue of the 40th volume of the Josse Bass series ASHE Higher Education Report Each monograph is the definitive analysis of a tough higher education issue based on thorough research of pertinent literature and institutional experiences Topics are identified by a national survey Noted practitioners and scholars are then commissioned to write the reports with experts providing critical reviews of each manuscript before publication

The Formation of Intellectual Capital and Its Ability to Transform Higher Education Institutions and the Knowledge Society Cardoso Espinosa, Edgar Oliver, 2019-06-28 The knowledge society arises from the combination of four interdependent elements the production of knowledge through research its transmission through education its dissemination through information and communication technologies and its exploitation through innovation For this reason higher education institutions HEIs are the main component of the formation of intellectual capital because they are the key element of the knowledge society so it is necessary that they continue to be the main source of the necessary skills that allow the increase of economic competitiveness sustainability and citizen welfare within the framework of quality education and equity The Formation of Intellectual Capital and Its Ability to Transform Higher Education Institutions and the Knowledge Society is an essential research publication that provides systemic research on the formation of intellectual capital in higher education and its impact on the knowledge society Highlighting topics such as educational programs management strategy and educational studies this book is meant for educators educational

University-Community Partnerships Tracy Soska, Alice K Johnson Butterfield, 2013-05-13 Examine how your university can help solve the complex problems of your community Community Outreach Partnership Centers COPC sponsored by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development HUD have identified civic engagement and community partnership as critical themes for higher education This unique book addresses past present and future models of university community partnerships COPC programs wide ranging social work partnerships that involve teaching research and social change and innovative methods in the processes of civic engagement The text recognizes the many professions schools and higher education institutions that contribute to advancing civic engagement through university community partnerships One important contribution this book makes to the literature of civic engagement is that it is the first publication that significantly highlights partnership contributions from schools of social work which are rediscovering their community roots through these initiatives University Community Partnerships Universities in Civic Engagement documents how universities are involved in creative individual faculty and program partnerships that help link campus and community partnerships that are vital for teaching research and practice Academics and practitioners discuss outreach initiatives methods of engagement with an emphasis on community organization service learning and other teaching learning methods research models participatory research and high engagement techniques used in university community partnerships The book includes case studies historical studies policy analysis program evaluation and curriculum development University Community Partnerships Universities in Civic Engagement examines the increasing civic engagement of institutions of higher education civic engagement projects involving urban nonprofit community based organizations and neighborhood associations the developmental stages of a COPC partnership problems faced in evaluating COPC programs civic engagement based on teaching and learning how pre tenure faculty can meet research teaching and service requirements through university community partnerships developing an MSW program structured around a single concentration of community partnership how class race and organizational differences are barriers to equality in the civic engagement process University Community

Partnerships Universities in Civic Engagement is one of the few available academic resources to address the importance of social work involvement in COPC programs Social work educators students and practitioners community organizers urban planners and anyone working in community development will find it invaluable in providing guidance for community problem solving and creating opportunities for faculty students and community residents to learn from one another The Michigan Alumnus, 2001 In v 1 8 the final number consists of the Commencement annual Academic Library Outreach Nancy D. Courtney, 2008-12-30 Traditionally academic library outreach has meant reaching out to the campus community providing services to faculty and students Many universities and colleges however now have a new or renewed emphasis on outreach beyond the campus seeking to ensure their institutions relevance to the community at large How can and do academic libraries participate in this type of outreach What types of collaborations or partnerships are academic libraries forming with schools public libraries or community groups How do academic librarians partner with faculty or campus departments on their community projects What role does service learning play Nancy Courtney has assembled a sampling of approaches from the innovative to the tried and true each written in the voice of its strongest champion Educational Partnerships and the State: The Paradoxes of Governing Schools, Children, and Families B. Franklin, M. Bloch, T. Popkewitz, 2003-12-18 Educational Partnerships and the State is a compelling collection of essays by an international group of scholars that provides a critical exploration of the role of partnerships in contemporary educational reform Their focus is on the expanding role that collaboration between the public and private sector has come to play in the governing of schools children and families in response to an array of worldwide economic and social changes The contributors to this volume highlight the new relationship between civil society and the state through partnerships and what that linkage has come to mean for an array of educational issues including academic achievement school governance school parent relationships teacher education the construction of family and community involvement and the discourses of reform as practices that order participation and action Local Economic Development and the Environment Susan M. Opp, Jeffery L. Osgood, Jr., 2017-09-25 A clear and practical examination of complex issues Local Economic Development and the Environment Finding Common Ground provides a broad academic look at the intersection of two important areas for local administrators In addition to managing development in a strained economic climate most administrators are also expected to be stewards of the environment However economic conditions often leave them with limited options for pursuing economic development and at the same time being environmentally mindful Many find themselves without a clear understanding of the concepts tools and best practices available to accomplish this herculean task Translating complex environmental and economic concepts into easily applicable practices the book Gives practitioners the information they need to communicate with consultants constituents and officials and to avoid ideological obstacles Compares regulatory differences between states and other geographical differences Includes examples from across the country to highlight variations in environmental regulations and laws Provides technical legal and political insights into the process of pursuing local economic development projects that incorporate protection and awareness Contains case studies that demonstrate the concepts in action allowing readers to fully grasp the complexities associated with sustainable economic development Discusses how local administrators can balance the economic and environmental needs of the future Bridging the gap between policy making intention and outcome this book connects readers with a larger body of research that not only underpins practical applications but also helps them avoid legal technical and political obstacles It provides an arsenal of best practices and everyday easy to use strategies for optimizing the difficult balance between economic development and environmental protection
