Beyond Blame Child Abuse Tragedies Revisited:

Beyond Blame Dr Peter Reder, Sylvia Duncan, Moira Gray, 2005-09-29 What can we learn from inquiries into cases of fatal child abuse Beyond Blame offers a new way of looking at such cases and shows that it is possible to draw important lessons from them The authors all three experienced in child protection work summarise thirty five major inquiries since 1973 setting them in their social context and discussing the implications both for practical work in the field and for future inquiries They stress the need for those who work day to day in child protection to develop and apply a more sophisticated level of analysis to assessment and intervention They identify common themes within abusing families in the relationships between members of the professional networks and in the interactions between the families and the professionals Beyond Blame Peter Reder, Sylvia Duncan, Moira Gray, 1993 Summarizes the major inquiries into child sexual abuse It includes 35 reports available since 1973 which are examined and set in their social context Developing Nursing Practice with Children and Young People Jane Hughes, Geraldine Lyte, 2015-09-08 Developing Nursing Practice with Children and Young People explores the context of children's nursing in light of recent policy changes and looks at contemporary issues and emerging roles within the field Divided into four parts Part One focuses on the emergence of children's nursing in healthcare detailing events and developments that have shaped the role of children's nurses Part Two examines many aspects of practice for registered practitioners in nursing ranging from acute care settings to children's nurses developing roles in primary care mental health and with children and young people with special health and social needs Part Three then provides a detailed analysis of advanced practice in children's nursing The advanced skills portfolio is presented in depth augmented by exemplars of a number of advanced practice roles which have already been established Finally Part Four builds on the previous three parts by offering several case studies from practice including accounts from children young people and families as well as assistant practitioners and student nurses The text concludes by focusing on the longer term scope for children's nurses Parents and Children Andrew Bainham, 2017-03-02 This volume brings together some of the best journal articles of the last twenty years which deal with various aspects of the relationship between parents and children Adopting an inter disciplinary and comparative approach the book reproduces articles from a variety of journals in law and the social sciences The book is divided into eight parts dealing respectively with becoming a parent the status and obligations of parenthood issues of upbringing adolescence child support parental separation divorce and children child abuse and state intervention social parenthood and adoption The volume includes a substantial introduction by the editor
