Citizenship brings prominent activists and scholars together to examine the emergence and significance of the contemporary immigrant rights movement Contributors place the contemporary immigrant rights movement in historical and comparative contexts by looking at the ways immigrants and their allies have staked claims to rights in the past and by examining movements based in different communities around the United States Scholars explain the evolution of immigration policy and analyze current conflicts around issues of immigrant rights activists engaged in the current movement document the ways in which coalitions have been built among immigrants from different nations and between immigrant and native born peoples The essays examine the ways in which questions of immigrant rights engage broader issues of identity including gender race and sexuality

From the Land of Shadows Khatharya Um, 2015-10-16 In a century of mass atrocities the Khmer Rouge regime marked Cambodia with one of the most extreme genocidal instances in human history What emerged in the aftermath of the regime's collapse in 1979 was a nation fractured by death and dispersal It is estimated that nearly one fourth of the country's population perished from hard labor disease starvation and executions Another half million Cambodians fled their ancestral homeland with over one hundred thousand finding refuge in America From the Land of Shadows surveys the Cambodian diaspora and the struggle to understand and make meaning of this historical trauma Drawing on more than 250 interviews with survivors across the United States as well as in France and Cambodia Khatharya Um places these accounts in conversation with studies of comparative revolutions totalitarianism transnationalism and memory works to illuminate the pathology of power as well as the impact of auto genocide on individual and collective healing Exploring the interstices of home and exile forgetting and remembering From the Land of Shadows follows the ways in which Cambodian individuals and communities seek to rebuild connections frayed by time distance and politics in the face of this injurious history

Haunting the Korean Diaspora Grace M. Cho, 2008 Since the Korean War the forgotten war more than a million Korean women have acted as sex workers for U S servicemen More than 100 000 women married GIs and moved to the United States Through intellectual vigor and personal recollection Haunting the Korean Diaspora explores the repressed history of emotional and physical violence between the United States and Korea and the unexamined reverberations of sexual relationships between Korean women and American soldiers
