When we correct the factors that keep children at risk we can make a difference in the lives of those children and the adults they ll grow up to be Mary Frances Bowley Children are meant to imagine bright futures and chase them But for the millions of at risk children in America hope is lost in the heavy fog of trauma Make It Zero is a call to bring it back Tying shocking statistics to real stories Make It Zero explores various forms of childhood vulnerability and offers specific ways for everyone to end them It reveals the world of opportunity behind a single moment of compassion and it teaches us that when we help the hopeless dream again we ourselves come more alive A book for everyone moms dads teachers bus drivers nurses whomever it calls us to fulfill our responsibility to children and build a world that is safe for every last one Each of us is only one person but one person determined to act is powerful Moments can multiply into movements and create groundswells of change Make It Zero is your moment Be inspired Be empowered Help bring hope to every child Teaching Women's Studies in Conservative Contexts Cantice Greene,2016-01-13 Women s Studies is a field that inspires strong reactions both positive and negative inside and outside of the classroom The field partly due to its activist origins is often associated with liberal ideology and is therefore chided by students and others who identify as conservative The goal of this book is to introduce conservative perspectives into the issues of gender sexuality race and power that are topics of teaching and discussion in women s studies courses The book also aims to provide examples of pathways by which conservative students and scholars can engage the field of women s studies not as opponents but as contributors Contributors including administrators activists scholar teachers artists and ministers come together in this collection to engage in writing and response and to add their approaches to teaching and administering women s studies on their campuses Glimpses of the New Creation W. David O. Taylor,Jeremy Begbie,2019-09-03 How do the arts in worship form individuals and communities Every choice of art in worship opens up and closes down possibilities for the formation of our humanity Every practice of music every decision about language every use of our bodies every approach to visual media or church buildings forms our desires shapes our imaginations habituates our emotional instincts and reconfigures our identity as Christians in contextually meaningful ways generating thereby a sense of the triune God and of our place in the world Glimpses of the New

Creation argues that the arts form us in worship by bringing us into intentional and intensive participation in the aesthetic aspect of our humanity that is our physical emotional imaginative and metaphorical capacities In so doing they invite the people of God to be conformed to Christ and to participate in the praise of Christ and in the praise of creation which by the Spirit s power raises its peculiar voice to the Father in heaven for the sake of the world that God so loves
