Breaking the Discipleship Code David Putman, 2008 Balancing cultural relevance with biblical faithfulness Putman invites ordinary believers to begin having an extraordinary spiritual impact in their unique context Breaking the Discipleship Code David Putman, 2008-05-01 Breaking the Discipleship Code opens the door to a greater understanding of what it means to personally be a missional follower of Jesus in relation to every aspect of our changing world Balancing cultural relevance with biblical faithfulness the book invites ordinary believers whether on Wall Street or in a Waffle House next door or across the ocean to begin having an extraordinary spiritual impact in their unique context Servantship Graham Joseph Hill, 2013-10-10 Servantship is essentially about following our Lord Jesus Christ the servant Lord and his mission it is a life of discipleship to him patterned after his self emptying humility sacrifice love values and mission Servantship is humbly valuing others more than yourself and looking out for the interests and wellbeing of others Servantship is the cultivation of the same attitude of mind Christ Jesus had making yourself nothing being a servant humbling yourself and submitting yourself to the will and purposes of the triune God Since servantship is the imitation of Christ it involves an unreserved participation in the missio Dei the Trinitarian mission of God In this pioneering work sixteen servants describe the four movements of radical servantship Servantship is the movement 1 from leadership to radical servantship 2 from shallowness to dynamic theological reflection 3 from theories to courageous practices and 4 from forgetfulness to transforming memory Servantship recognizes in word thought and deed that whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant and whoever wants to be first must be your slave just as the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many Missio Dei Thomas Schirrmacher, 2018-05-10 The important term Missio Dei Mission of God needs a biblical foundation The sending of God by God is a foundational motive in the New Testament Even at the very beginning of salvation history shortly after creation God became the first missionary In Jesus God is the missionary par excellence and in the Holy Spirit God is the most successful missionary Mission is part of the nature of God and therefore mission can only be described holistically and in a manner that transforms human mission into the image of God's mission In three chapters three important themes regarding the Missio Dei are discussed 1 The recent history of the term in missiology 2 the biblical and systematic foundations 3 the debate between the Western and Eastern wings of Christianity over the filioque that is the question whether the Holy Spirit was sent by the Father alone or by the Father and by Jesus His Son The Missional Church in Perspective (The Missional Network) Craig Van Gelder, Dwight J Zscheile, 2011-05-01 In this book two leading ministry experts place the missional church conversation in historical perspective and offer fresh insights for its further development They begin by providing a helpful review of the genesis of the missional church and offering an insightful critique of the Gospel and Our Culture Network's seminal book Missional Church which set the conversation in motion They map the diverse paths this discussion has taken over the past decade identifying four primary branches and ten sub branches of the conversation and placing over one hundred published titles and websites into this framework The authors then utilize recent developments in biblical and theological perspectives to strengthen and extend the conversation about missional theology the church s interaction with culture and cultures and church organization and leadership in relation to the formation of believers as disciples Professors students and church leaders will value this comprehensive overview of the missional movement It includes a foreword by Alan J Roxburgh
