Between Memory And Museum A Dialogue With Folk And Indigenous Artists:

Between Memory and Museum Arun Wolf, Gita Wolf, 2015 The book is divided into four sections The first features the idea of a museum and the knowledge that it produces The second explores the notion of tradition The third looks at the position of the individual within community art and the final one traces the relationship of lived histories to indigenous art with a tribute to the enduring power of the imagination Page 14

Narrative Objects Tatiana Argounova-Low, Alison K. Brown, 2025-06-25 Narrative Objects is concerned with the conversations that arise when artists scholars and museum practitioners come together with historic objects Its focus is a unique mammoth ivory model of yhyakh the annual celebration of the Sakha people in the Russian Far East which has been in the collection of the British Museum since 1867 Almost 150 years later the model was loaned to the National Arts Museum of the Republic of Sakha Yakutia for exhibition and public engagement As Sakha people revisit past histories and reconstitute cultural knowledge following decades of Soviet rule this book considers narratives generated by the return of the model which speak to wider concerns in anthropology material culture studies and history about how knowledge is both suppressed and engaged with The book also explores how art can be a focus for cultural pride how skilled practices are entwined with oral histories and how historic objects can contribute to wider processes of cultural revival The chapters draw on fieldwork and museum and archival research in Sakha Sire Paris and London Narrative Objects is particularly relevant to scholars of anthropology and museum studies as well as those with an interest in the subarctic and post Soviet states

Impacts of Museums on Global Communication Sawada, Maiko, Andres, Frederic, 2024-10-29 In an era marked by migration conflicts and cultural tensions the challenge of fostering intercultural understanding and promoting peace is more pressing than ever Traditional education methods often need to be revised to address these complex issues leaving a void in the efforts to bridge cultural divides and promote global harmony Impacts of Museums on Global Communication offers a solution to this problem by exploring the transformative potential of Japanese grassroots peace museums as innovative tools for peace education Through a comprehensive analysis of empirical research findings we highlight the critical role of creativity in leveraging museums and interactive media exhibitions to instill values of intercultural understanding Focusing on Japan s unique approach to disseminating the value of peace we provide professionals and researchers with fresh insights into practical strategies for promoting peace education in diverse cultural contexts
