Joseph, Jean Eddy Saint Paul, Glodel Mezilas, 2018-02-07 Between Two Worlds Jean Price Mars Haiti and Africa is a special volume on Jean Price Mars that reassesses the importance of his thought and legacy and the implications of his ideas in the twenty first century's culture of political correctness the continuing challenge of race and racism and imperial hegemony in the modern world Price Mars's thought is also significant for the renewed scholarly interests in Haiti and Haitian Studies in North America and the meaning of contemporary Africa in the world today This volume explores various dimensions in Price Mars thought and his role as historian anthropologist cultural critic public intellectual religious scholar pan Africanist and humanist The goal of this book is fourfold it explores the contributions of Jean Price Mars to Haitian history and culture it studies Price Mars engagement with Western history and the problem of the racist narrative it interprets Price Mars connections with Black Internationalism Harlem Renaissance and the Negritude Movement and finally the book underscores Price Mars contributions to post colonialism religious studies Africana Studies and Pan Africanism Between Two Worlds Richard Hoggart, 2020-03-09 Throughout his life Richard Hoggart has been involved with four main areas broadcasting arts policy education and social work all of which he finds have characteristics in common This collection of essays represents less than a quarter of his essays published over the last two decades The subjects to which he turned again and again and which recur in public debate are still current and contemporary His views on culture and society on literature and censorship and on higher education are both unique and timely The volume is divided into six parts Part 1 Society and Culture Home and Away discusses the question Are museums political the use of the battered word culture in relation to UNESCO and the end of the public service idea Part 2 A Very English Voice looks at the rural English culture and country of D H Lawrence and examines the controversy and censorship involved with three of Lawrence's works The Rainbow Women in Love and Lady Chatterley's Lover Part 3 Politics and Literature reveals the author's penchant for timely debates on such subjects as The State versus Literature and Freedom to Publish Even Hateful Stuff and his thoughts on reviewers and reviewing Part 4 Levels of Education touches upon the subjects of politics in universities the use of public funds for various purposes presumed to be socially valuable academics in the marketplace and the need for government to foster critical and cultivated literacy Part 5 Figures from a Distant Past contains reminiscences on and portraits of Hoggart's close relationships and family Part 6 Summing Up and Signing Off is an interview with Nicolas Tredell in which Hoggart discusses his life's work and concerns Written in Hoggart's characteristically graceful but direct style these essays touch on issues of contemporary importance in his unique manner This volume will be of interest to scholars and general readers interested in culture studies communications and education Writing Across Worlds Susheila Nasta, 2004 From Chinua Achebe to Marina Warner Writing Across Worlds brings together new interviews and interviews with major international writers previously featured in the pages of Wasafiri magazine founded in 1984 and now celebrating its twentieth anniversary Between Two Worlds Malcolm Gaskill,2014-11-11 In the 1600s over 350 000 intrepid English men women and children migrated to America leaving behind their homeland for an uncertain future Whether they settled in Jamestown Salem or Barbados these migrants entrepreneurs soldiers and pilgrims alike faced one incontrovertible truth England was a very very long way away In Between Two Worlds celebrated historian Malcolm Gaskill tells the sweeping story of the English experience in America during the first century of colonization Following a large and varied cast of visionaries and heretics merchants and warriors and slaves and rebels Gaskill brilliantly illuminates the often traumatic challenges the settlers faced The first waves sought to recreate the English way of life even to recover a society that was vanishing at home But they were thwarted at every turn by the perils of a strange continent unaided by monarchs who first ignored then exploited them As these colonists strove to leave their mark on the New World they were forced by hardship and hunger by illness and infighting and by bloody and desperate battles with Indians to innovate and adapt or perish As later generations acclimated to the wilderness they recognized that they had evolved into something distinct no longer just the English in America they were perhaps not even English at all These men and women were among the first white Americans and certainly the most prolific And as Gaskill shows in learning to live in an unforgiving world they had begun a long and fateful journey toward rebellion and finally independence Mothering Across Cultures Angelita Dianne Reyes,2002 On the Very Edge Ian Kinane,2025-01-15 On the Very Edge Bidentities in Michelle Cliff s Fiction uses the life and work of bisexual biracial and bicultural author Michelle Cliff 1946 2016 to develop an entirely new approach to intersectional cultural race and gender sexuality studies that prioritizes bi ness as a methodological tool The book focuses not simply on bisexuality biracialism or biculturalism as isolated identity concepts rather it explores the very nature of these intersectional identity categories as configured by Cliff The text therefore represents a reclamation of bi identity in Cliff s work as a much broader cultural and not just sexual or racial category arguing that Cliff s spaces and or stages of bi ness are in themselves significant in understanding contemporary global identity politics as well as in navigating complex and often damaging identity constructs Michelle Cliff partnered with poet Adrienne Rich and passing as white had an often invisible sexuality and cultural identity Yet her acclaimed work Abeng No Telephone to Heaven Bodies of Water If I Could Write This in Fire Free Enterprise and others demonstrates the intersections between bisexuality biracialism and biculturalism in often profound ways Drawing on original research interviews diaries editorials and other correspondences On the Very Edge will have far reaching implications in the understanding of complex Caribbean identity politics and intersectional race gender and sexuality studies at large Jean Rhys Helen Carr,2012 This is a lucid and attractively written study of Jean Rhys whose critical reputation continues to rise after long neglect Literature and Culture in the Black Atlantic K. Campbell,2016-04-30 This book extends our understanding of the black Atlantic a term coined by Paul Gilroy to describe the political cultural and creative interrelations among blacks living in Africa the Americas and Europe This study focuses on pre colonial English literary constructions and their effects on post Independence Caribbean literature Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Latin American and Caribbean Literature, 1900-2003 Daniel Balderston, Mike Gonzalez, 2004-02-12 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Latin American and Caribbean Literature 1900 2003 draws together entries on all aspects of literature including authors critics major works magazines genres schools and movements in these regions from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day With more than 200 entries written by a team of international contributors this Encyclopedia successfully covers the popular to the esoteric The Encyclopedia is an invaluable reference resource for those studying Latin American and or Caribbean literature as well as being of huge interest to those following Spanish or Portuguese language courses
