Between Book Ends A Reflection Of Fifty Years Of Ministry:

Between Book Ends: A Reflection of Fifty Years of Ministry Roland James Faley, 2012 Between Book Ends A Reflection of Fifty Years of Ministry documents Fr Roland Faley's experiences as a Franciscan friar priest and provides a personal look at his life Back cover Education for Ministry 50 Years of Engaging, Responding, and Reflecting Maggie Taliaferro, Mary Ann Patterson, Kevin M Goodman, 2025-05-06 A powerful collection of essays that detail the history practices reflections and legacy of 50 years of Education for Ministry Celebrating its 50th anniversary with 120 000 graduates worldwide Education for Ministry EfM is a proven model of Biblical based learning Through its small group seminars this model recognizes the profound importance of stories and storytelling both individually and collectively the critical work of building community and the development of skillful disciples who can articulate their faith Grounded in the Christian story based on the Bible church history and the sweep of religious thought EfM provides a foundation upon which to reflect theologically on today's culture As Bishop Phoebe Roaf says in her essay EfM has helped me become comfortable discussing my faith with people from various backgrounds and identifying how God was present in the events of everyday life This carefully curated collection of essays from the many contributors participants and leaders since its inception to present day share how their lives have been touched and formed by this groundbreaking program Authors include James F Turrell Karen Meridith Edward de Bary Katie Nakamura Rengers Richard Brewer Termain Hicks Anne Moats Williams and many more EfM's executive director Kevin Goodman summarizes As we move into the next 50 years now more than ever we are called to meet and understand people where they are and build community in Jesus's name After the Revival Michael Wilkinson, Linda M. Ambrose, 2020-09-23 Early Pentecostal revivals swept through Canadian communities big and small in the early 1900s Reports abounded of worshippers falling down at the altar speaking in tongues having dreams and visions and experiencing divine healing Tent meetings inspired curious onlookers to witness these phenomena for themselves Following these revival meetings Pentecostals organized built churches and expanded across the country while many churches were beginning to decline How did these Pentecostal holy rollers move from the fringe to take centre stage in Canada's religious landscape Why is a religious group rooted in the early twentieth century tied to Methodism and the Holiness movement still so popular among followers from all walks of life especially Indigenous peoples and new Canadians In After the Revival Michael Wilkinson and Linda Ambrose ask these and other questions arguing that the answers are tied to Pentecostalism's continued organizational efforts Since 1919 the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada PAOC has worked to establish order and steady growth by managing financial and material assets offering programs designed to attract families and youth and training leaders While Pentecostalism sometimes reflects broader cultural trends and at other times resists them the PAOC has grown steadily to become one of the largest evangelical denominations in Canada Addressing broader questions about how religious movements organize establish an identity and develop a subculture that flourishes After the

Revival explores the fascinating history of Pentecostalism in Canada and the ways the church represented by the PAOC engages with Canadian society

Beginning and Ending a Pastorate William Powell Tuck, 2018-08-08 Changing pastors is a critical time in the life of a church with opportunities for misunderstanding between the congregation and the incoming and outgoing pastors In this short volume Dr Tuck draws on his experience in all phases of this transition to help pastors and congregations understand the process and learn to work together to make such change successful He addresses the role of the interim pastor of the church leaders and the departing and incoming pastors While this time of change can be a challenge and in some churches has had negative results this book provides a guide to the attitudes and actions that will make this an opportunity for growth new ministry and continuing spiritual transformation As a volume in the Conversations in Ministry Series edited by a committee from the Academy of Parish Clergy it is selected by parish pastors for parish pastors and designed for your busy schedule If you are a pastor and are facing a change of this nature or are a leader in a congregation that is experiencing or about to experience such a transition Beginning and Ending a Pastorate will provide you with clear practical scripturally based and theologically sound advice for every step of the way It is as one reviewer noted a worthy guide

Reflections on Biblical Histories Robert N. Palmer, 2005-02-10 The book is a re examination of the Old Testament and historic figures contained therein plus a glimpse into the life of Jesus The author finds fault with the chronologies of both archbishops Usher and Edwin Thiele while showing a more accurate one for the Hebrew histories to have occurred using various disciplines Such as archeology Assyriology astronomy Biblical studies church history Egyptology Historic Geology and Paleography

Immense Unfathomed Unconfined Sean Winter, 2013-08-09 The essays in this volume offer a range of perspectives on the theme of grace Drawing on the best of contemporary biblical historical and theological scholarship the contributors consider the role played by the theme of grace in the Christian tradition its importance and some implications for today A number of essays pay special attention to the significance of the theme of grace within Methodism As a whole the volume testifies to the diverse ways in which divine grace enables and shapes patterns of graceful living in the world Topics covered include Pauline perspectives on grace the theme of grace in Wesleyan hymnody grace in the theology of Barth Rahner and de Lubac the relationship between Christian understandings of grace universalism and other religious traditions the implications of grace for understanding creation care ministry practice spirituality and work Together the essays honour the life and ministry of Emeritus Professor Norman Young whose own theological work has been devoted to exploring the mystery which we discern as the way of grace and who offers an account of his own theological journey within the volume s concluding personal reflections

The Mind of Carter G. Woodson as Reflected in the Books He Owned, Read, & Published Randall K. Burkett, 2006

A History of Christian Doctrine Hubert Cunliffe-Jones, 2006-04-24 Anyone who is interested in constructive theology needs a knowledge of the history of Christian theology In succession to the classic History of Christian Doctrine by G P Fisher Professor Cunliffe Jones has brought together a team of experts in the various periods to provide a new and comprehensive survey of the field All the great themes the Fathers the Heretics of the long story here find their due place from sub apostolic Christianity to Vatican II Also featured are the contribution of Orthodox theology to the whole development the complex problems of the pre Reformation period and the troubled modern period with its new perspectives of Church and society and its deep underlying malaise Includes contributions from G W H Lampe Kallistos Ware David Knowles E Gordon Rupp Benjamin Drewery Basil Hall T H L Parker H F Woodhouse R Buick Knox and John H S Kent Thoughtful Adaptations to Change Edwin F. Drewlo, 2017-11-17 Western culture has changed radically in the last fifty years Death seems less dreadful sexuality less sacred and humanity less dignified Reason has yielded to passion and science often to political bias Philosophically and culturally the West has slowly moved from modernism to postmodernism It s not surprising that this shift has also radically affected the Christian church The doctrinal confidence of the past 350 years has given way to greater levels of theological confusion But while the new era thrives on religious pluralism a refreshing desire has arisen among many Christians to experience and share the unchanging good news of Jesus more authentically accurately and passionately This book is written to help ordinary people understand the nature of the transition that has occurred and to inspire them to allow the gospel itself to shape life and church ministry in the midst of this great change Each chapter ends with important questions for reflection or discussion Breath Prayer Christine Valters Paintner, 2021-10-12 Breath Prayer is an insightful guide to reclaiming this practice of the heart harmonizing the sacred rhythm of the body with words that sing to the soul in every moment of the day Carl McColman author of The New Big Book of Christian Mysticism and Eternal Heart Whether reciting the gathas in Buddhist practice the Shema in Judaism or the Jesus Prayer in Christianity for centuries the practice of breath prayer has helped center people from a variety of faith traditions on the sacred in everyday life Through brief words of prayer or petition said silently to the rhythm of one s breath this simple meditative act combines praise for the divine with focused intention creating a profound spiritual connection in the quiet and even mundane moments of the day In Breath Prayer Christine Valters Paintner online abbess of Abbey of the Arts introduces us to this spiritual practice and offers beautiful poem prayers for walking working dressing cleaning sitting in silence doing the dishes living in community breathing the divine into our daily lives Over time these recitations become as natural as breathing We don t so much recite the prayers as the prayers recite us guide us and open our hearts to the everyday sacred With each of the forty prayers Paintner includes reflections on life s ordinary beauty and heartfelt advice for discovering the sacred all around Breath Prayer concludes with guidance for creating your own breath prayers to deepen your practice
