Between River And Sea Encounters In Israel And Palestine:

Between River and Sea Dervla Murphy, 2015 None of Dervla Murphy's journeys have been easy but with Between River and Sea she has kept her most difficult destination till last. In cramped Haifa high rises in homes in the settlements and in a refugee camp on the West Bank Dervla Murphy talks with whomever she meets. She tries to understand the attitudes of both Palestinians and Jewish Israelis with her customary curiosity, her acute ear and mind, her empathy and her moral seriousness. While she keeps an open mind, her sympathies are clearly with the Palestinians, remorselessly dispossessed of and cut off from their lands and frustrated and humiliated on a daily basis. Clinging to hope, she comes to believe that despite its difficulties the only viable future lies in a single democratic state of Israel/Palestine based on one person, one vote. The One State Solution. Book jacket Civil Society, Post-Colonialism and Transnational Solidarity Marie-Violaine Louvet, 2016-06-28 Civil Society Post Colonialism and Transnational Solidarity originates from Louvet's observation of the strong commitment of a layer of Irish civil society from the man on the street to political parties, associations and trade unions to the defence of one antagonist or the other in the Israeli/Palestinian conflict beginning with the Six Day War in 1967 and increasingly so after the Lebanon Wars at the start of the 1980s and the Second Intifada 2000-2005. This book observes how this phenomenon is particularly striking in Northern Ireland where Israeli and Palestinian flags have been flown by Unionists and Nationalists as signs of solidarity and identification. Louvet sheds light on the dynamics and strategies at play in the Middle East conflict in Northern Ireland but also in the Republic of Ireland, a country considered to be widely sympathetic to the Palestinian cause. With an overarching perspective highlighting the influence of Irish colonial history over the motives and discourse of the different levels of mobilization in civil society, this book shows the global movement towards the fragmentation and specialization of transnational solidarity actions in Ireland. The House Divided Barnaby Rogerson, 2024-01-04 Recommended on The Rest is Politics and Empire. A Waterstones Best History Book of 2024. A masterly engagement with the most delicate and important of subjects, filled with gentle empathy, learning and rare balance. Rory Stewart. Rogerson is an original, eloquent and always fascinating. William Dalrymple. Brilliant. Anita Anand. This is not a book to be ignored. The Times. At the heart of the Middle East, with its regional conflicts and proxy wars, is a 1400-year-old schism between Sunni and Shia. To understand this divide and its modern resonances, we need to revisit its origins, which go back to the death of the Prophet Muhammad in 632, the accidental coup that set aside the claims of his cousin and son-in-law Ali and the slaughter of Ali's own son Husayn at Karbala. These events, known to every Muslim, have created a slender faultline in the Middle East. The House Divided follows these narratives from the first Sunni and Shia caliphates through the medieval caliphates and empires of the Arabs, Persians and Ottomans to the contemporary Middle East. It shows how a complex range of identities and rivalries, religious, ethnic and national, have shaped the region, jolted by the seismic shift of the Iranian Revolution of 1979. Rogerson's original approach takes the modern chessboard of nation-states and looks at each through its particular history of empires.
