Beyond Female Masochism Memory Work And Politics Questions For Feminism:

Beyond Female Masochism Frigga Haug, 1992-06-17 Frigga Haug one of Germany's best known feminist and Marxist critics develops here a profound challenge both to women's oppression and to what she sees as women's collusion in that oppression. Rejecting the essentialism of much feminist writing today along with the denial of subjectivity that still permeates Marxism, Haug explores the connections between Marxist theory and the emancipation of women, a project which necessarily involves as she explains diverting a powerful and long-standing anger into detective work. Under the headings of Socialization, Work and Politics, she combines the fruits of these investigations with the influential memory work she has pioneered with women's collectives to throw startling new light on a wide range of themes and issues: personal ethics and public morality, daydreams, domesticity and consumerism, privatization, new technologies and the restructuring of the workplace, the evolution of women's politics in Germany, the future of socialist feminism in the wake of Communism's collapse. Above all, this is a book which strives to find new links between the micro-politics of daily life and the evolving structures of capitalism. If we could find out why and when our hopes for life were buried, Haug argues, then we could try to take our history in our own hands. Beyond Female Masochism provides the materials and inspiration to do just that.

Rosa Luxemburg and women's politics p. 219. Women, Biomedical Research and Art Ninette Rothmüller, 2021-06-14. Die Studie widmet sich intersektionalen Verletzbarkeiten, sozio-geografischen und rassistischen Ungerechtigkeiten sowie dem Traumapotenzial von Reproduktionsmedizin, Menschenhandel und Schwarzmarkt-Organhandel. Mittels eines empirischen, kritisch diskursanalytischen, künstlerischen und philosophisch-theoretischen Zugangs entwickelt die interdisziplinäre Studie praktische, kreative Werkzeuge für eine Pädagogik, die Würde und Integrität betont und die Menschenrechte im Alltag der betroffenen Bevölkerung unterstützt. Psychosocial Pathways

Towards Reinventing the South African University Sabrina Liccardo, 2020-11-02. This book proposes a conceptual, empirical framework for exploring forms of continuity and change along psychosocial pathways in South African universities. It illustrates how the psychosocial pathways are grounded in the symbolic narratives and knowledges of young scientists, engineers and architects, all interlocutors in the research from which this book is based. Alala Mamoratwa, Welile Odirile, Kaiya Amirah, Takalani Nosakhele, Naila Ambani, Khanyisile Itumeleng, Ethwasa and Kgnaya provide collective standpoints in the multiplicities within and between the lived lives and told stories of young Black South African women in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) fields. In doing so, this compelling work advances possibilities for demythologising scientific endeavour as a white male achievement and shifting knowledge communities across gendered, racialised class and national divides. This book presents an innovative narrative methodology utilising the myth of the Minotaur to examine the state of the university at the heart of the hierarchical labyrinth in post-apartheid South Africa. Throughout the work, the author wrestles with and self-reflexively highlights her own positionality as a white middle class

South African woman to examine how this affects the production of this research in ways which serve to preserve the colonial knowledge system With the rise of the Rhodes Must Fall and Fees Must Fall student movement in South Africa demanding for the fall of institutionalised racial hierarchies the author uses the cover image of narrative formations in the spirit of exploration to think with and through undulating networked forms that could possibly forge new psychosocial pathways towards decolonising and reinventing South African universities This work offers a unique conceptual and methodological resource for students and scholars of psychosocial and narrative theory as well as those who are concerned about the politics of higher education both in South Africa and in other contexts around the world Dissecting the Mundane Adrienne E.
