Information Users and Usability in the Digital Age G. G. Chowdhury, Sudatta Chowdhury, 2011-09-15 Information users and usability constitute the main building blocks of today's electronic information world. This important new text is the first to give a holistic overview of all of the necessary issues relating to information users and the usability of information services in the digital world including user-centred design and the characteristics and behaviour of information users. This book helps readers understand why information users and the usability of information services are important and equips them to play a proper role in designing user-centred information systems and services and to properly exploit information services for the maximum benefit of users. It covers all of the major issues, the current situation and what the various research studies from around the world show.

Introduction to Human Factors Nancy J. Stone, Alex Chaparro, Joseph R. Keebler, Barbara S. Chaparro, Daniel S. McConnell, 2024-12-26 This textbook comprehensively introduces readers to the cutting edge field of human factors psychology offering real world examples illustrating how experimental findings can be used to improve the design of tools and environments that we use every day. The revised second edition provides updated text, examples, pedagogical boxes and references. Features: Showcases pedagogical boxes that end with thought questions to encourage student processing and application of the material. Includes instructor materials such as PowerPoint slides, activities and exam items to facilitate teaching for instructors who are new to the course. Presents theoretical and practical implications of applying psychology to design with the use of examples. Discusses anthropometric tools, anthropometric data collection methods, hand biomechanics and hand tools. Highlights diversity and inclusion with applications to the special population section in each chapter. Introduction to Human Factors is an ideal read for senior undergraduate and graduate students in the fields of ergonomics, human factors and psychology. Online teaching resources accompany this textbook including PowerPoints, a test bank with answers and an end of chapter questions and answers key for the instructors.
