Men of Valor and Anxiety Mariusz Kalczewiak, 2025-10-14 At the turn of the twentieth century Jewish men in Eastern Europe lived in a social reality in which both Jewish and non Jewish men and women tested debated and redesigned masculinities Men of Valor and Anxiety explores how religion class divisions antisemitism new domesticity and militarization changed masculine ideas and practices in Eastern Europe between the 1890s and 1930s Author Mariusz Kalczewiak applies recent paradigms of gender theory and social history to offer a sensitive historical analysis of personal memoirs advice books archives of Jewish institutions and journalistic commentaries This study ventures into the military barracks yeshivot study halls fraternity parties and Jewish homes to demonstrate how complex Jewish masculinities were between orthodoxy acculturation Polish and Jewish nationalisms and changing notions of domesticity and profession Focusing on an ethnic minority in a country that first struggled for independence and later embarked on an accelerated modernization project Men of Valor and Anxiety is the first book to demonstrate how the links between ethnicity and gender were constructed within both global and local contexts Islam and Homosexuality Samar Habib, 2009-11-12 An extensive collection of essays that examines the place of homosexuality in the contemporary and classical Muslim world The place of sexual and gender minorities in the contemporary Islamic world is the subject of fascinating new directions in research and scholarly thought Islam and Homosexuality gathers together 20 experts exploring these issues to provide an expansive look at the treatment of same sex interactions in Muslim cultures today Islam and Homosexuality offers one volume on the specific experiences of gay Muslims today and a second volume viewing the issue from a global perspective Essays explore the lives of LGBTIQ persons in both Islamic nations and Muslim communities in non Islamic countries Additional writings explore the roots of homophobia in the theology of Islam the various judgments against homosexuality in the different schools of Islamic law and the potential scriptural basis for including LGBTIQ persons in the Muslim community No other resource on the relationship between LGBTIQ persons and the world's largest religion covers the topic with anything approaching this work's range or depth

Jewish Women Katharina Galor, 2023-12-15 Jewish Women Between Conformity and Agency examines the concepts of gender and sexuality through the primary lens of visual and material culture from antiquity through to the present day The backbone of this transhistorical and transcontextual study is the question of Jewish women's agency in four different geographical chronological and methodological contexts beginning with women's dress codes in Roman Byzantine Syro Palestine continuing with rituals of purity in medieval Ashkenaz worship in papal Avignon and the Comtat Venaissin and ending with marriage and divorce in Israeli film Each of these explorations is interested in creating a dialogue between the patriarchal legacy of the traditional texts and the chronologically corresponding visual and material culture The author challenges traditional approaches to the study of Jewish culture by employing tools from art history archaeology and film and media studies In each of these different contexts there is ample evidence that women despite persistent overall structural discrimination have found ways to challenge male constructs of gender norms Ultimately these examples from past and present times highlight women's eminence in shaping Jewish history and culture Bringing a new interdisciplinary lens to the study of the history of gender and sexuality the book will be of interest to students and researchers of Jewish history and culture art history archaeology and film studies Waltzing with Bashir Raya Morag, 2013-09-25 Waltzing with Bashir proposes a new paradigm for cinema trauma studies the trauma of the perpetrator Recognizing a current shift in interest from the trauma suffered by victims to that suffered by perpetrators the book seeks to theorize this still under studied field thus breaking the repression of this concept and phenomenon in psychoanalysis and in cinema literature Taking as a point of departure the distinction between testimony given by the victim and confession made by the perpetrator this pioneering work ventures to define and analyze perpetrator trauma in scholarly representational literary and societal contexts In contrast to the twentieth century definition of the perpetrator based on modern wars and totalitarian regimes Morag defines the perpetrator in the context of the twenty first century s new wars and democratic regimes The direct result of a drastic transformation in the very nature of war made manifest by the lethal clash between soldier and civilian in a battlefield newly defined in bodily terms the new trauma paradigm stages the trauma of the soldier turned perpetrator thus offering a novel perspective on issues of responsibility and guilt Such theoretical insights demonstrate that the epistemology of the post witness era requires breaking deep seated psychological and psychiatric as well as cultural and political repression Driven by the emergence of a new wave of Israeli documentary cinema Waltzing with Bashir analyzes the Israeli film and literature produced in the aftermath of the second Intifada As Ari Folman s Waltz with Bashir and other new wave films demonstrate Israeli cinema attached on one side to the legacy of the Holocaust and on the other to the Israeli Occupation is a highly relevant case for probing the limits of both victim and perpetrator traumas and for revisiting and recontextualizing the crucial moment in which the victim perpetrator cultural symbiosis is dismantled
