Beyond Good Intentions Tori Hogan,2012-09-25 Young and idealistic Tori Hogan travels to Kenya as an intern for Save the Children intent upon doing her part to improve the lives of refugees But the cynicism of a young African boy changes Tori s life and sets her on a course to reconsider everything she thought she knew about helping those in need Years later Tori returns to Africa and embarks on a journey through Kenya Uganda and Rwanda searching for the truth about what does and does not work in international aid While there are glimmers of hope along the way she discovers an aid industry mired in waste ineffective solutions imposed by well intentioned outsiders and humanitarian efforts that do more harm than good Beyond Good Intentions is both a moving story of one woman s personal journey and an urgent call to arms to change the way we offer aid overseas Tori s candid reflections on international aid shine a light on our ability to improve the lives of others often in ways we would never expect

Fast Times in Palestine Pamela Olson,2013-03-12 For much of her life like many Westerners most of what Pamela Olson knew of the Middle East was informed by headlines and stereotypes But when she traveled to Palestine in 2003 she found herself thrown with dizzying speed into the realities of Palestinian life Fast Times in Palestine is Olson s powerful deeply moving account of life in Palestine both the daily events that are universal to us all house parties concerts barbecues and weddings as well as the violence trauma and political tensions that are particular to the country From idyllic olive groves to

Palestinian beer gardens from Passover in Tel Aviv to Ramadan in a Hamas village readers will find Olson's narrative both suspenseful and discerning. Her irresistible story offers a multi-faceted understanding of the Palestinian perspective on the Israel-Palestine conflict, filling a gap in the West's understanding of the difficult relationship between the two nations. At turns funny, shocking, and galvanizing, Fast Times in Palestine is a gripping narrative that challenges our ways of thinking not only about the Middle East but about human nature, cultural identity, and our place in the world. Afghanistan Chris

Johnson, Jolyon Leslie, 2004-11. With the rebuilding of the failed Afghan state now at the center of the new international intervention, this book explores how the perceptions of outsiders have been at odds with Afghans' own understandings of their country. It shows how the lack of understanding that characterized past policies remains highly problematic. By continuing to indulge in a superficial, selective portrayal of the country, the international community risks manufacturing a state that does not exist and policies that will not work.
