Paul van der Veur

Brieven Aan Familie En Vrienden 19191941:

Postcolonial Netherlands Gert Oostindie, 2011 The Netherlands is home to one million citizens with roots in the former colonies Indonesia Suriname and the Antilles Entitlement to Dutch citizenship pre migration acculturation in Dutch language and culture as well as a strong rhetorical argument We are here because you were there were strong assets of the first generation This postcolonial bonus indeed facilitated their integration In the process the initial distance to mainstream Dutch culture diminished Postwar Dutch society went through serious transformations Its once lily white population now includes two million non Western migrants and the past decade witnessed heated debates about multiculturalism The most important debates about the postcolonial migrant communities centeracknowledgmentgement and the inclusion of colonialism and its legacies in the national memorial culture This resulted in state sponsored gestures ranging from financial compensation to monuments The ensemble of such gestures reflect a guilt ridden and inconsistent attempt to do justice to the colonial past and to Dutch citizens with colonial roots Postcolonial Netherlands is the first scholarly monograph to address these themes in an internationally comparative framework Upon its publication in the Netherlands 2010 the book elicited much praise but also serious objections to some of the author s theses such as his prediction about the diminishing relevance of postcolonial roots Publisher s description

The Lion and the Gadfly Paul van der Veur, 2021-12-28 This political biography reveals the turbulent life of Ernest François Eugène Douwes Dekker son of a Dutch father and a German Javanese mother born on Java in 1879 Vignettes flow in novel like fashion from the battle fields of South Africa and internment camp in Sri Lanka to a career in journalism in Java Radical thoughts then enter Douwes Dekker s mind such as demands for racial equality and national independence These made him write presciently that this road might take him to the executioner s hand or to the victory of revolution In exile from 1913 on his bravado allowed him to enter a doctoral program at the University of Zurich but also to entanglement with Indian revolutionaries operating from Berlin Returning to Java at the end of World War I he once again propagated the virtues of nationalism but soon was forced to relinquish his efforts and start a teaching career Even here constant surveillance and eventual internment in Surinam were his lot Within a decade the Republic of Indonesia had been proclaimed and Douwes Dekker emerged to acclaim as a close friend and political adviser to President Soekarno

Silenced Voices Inez Hollander, 2008 Like a number of Netherlands in the post World War II era Inez Hollander only gradually became aware of her family s connections with its Dutch colonial past including a Creole great grandmother For the most part such personal stories have been if not entirely silenced at least only whispered about in Holland where society has remained uncomfortable with many aspects of the country s relationship with its colonial empire Unlike the majority of memoirs that are soaked in nostalgia for tempo dulu Hollander s story sets out to come to grips with her family s past by weaving together personal records with historical and literary accounts of the period She seeks not merely to locate and preserve family memories but also to test them against a more disinterested historical record Hers is a complicated and sometimes painful personal journey of realization unusually mindful of the ways in which past memories and present considerations can be intermingled when we seek to understand a difficult past Silenced Voices is an important contribution to the literature on how Dutch society has dealt with its recent colonial history

Engineers of Happy Land Rudolf Mrázek, 2018-06-05 Based on close reading of historical documents poetry as much as statistics and focused on the conceptualization of technology this book is an unconventional evocation of late colonial Netherlands East Indies today Indonesia In considering technology and the ways that people use and think about things Rudolf Mr zek invents an original way to talk about freedom colonialism nationalism literature revolution and human nature The central chapters comprise vignettes and take up in turn transportation from shoes to road building to motorcycle clubs architecture from prison construction to home air conditioning optical technologies from photography to fingerprinting clothing and fashion and the introduction of radio and radio stations The text clusters around a group of fascinating recurring characters representing colonialism nationalism and the awkward inevitable presence of the European cultural intellectual and political avant garde Tillema the pharmacist author of Kromoblanda the explorer engineer IJzerman the Javanese princess Kartina the Indonesia nationalist journalist Mas Marco the Dutch novelist Couperus the Indonesian novelist Pramoedya Ananta Toer and Dutch left wing liberal Wim Wertheim and his wife In colonial Indies as elsewhere people employed what Proust called remembering and what Heidegger called thinging to sense and make sense of the world In using this observation to approach Indonesian society Mr zek captures that society off balance allowing us to see it in unfamiliar positions The result is a singular work with surprises for readers throughout the social sciences not least those interested in Southeast Asia or colonialism more broadly

Environment, Trade and Society in Southeast Asia, 2015-03-20 In Environment Trade and Society in Southeast Asia A Longue Dur e Perspective eleven historians bring their knowledge and insights to bear on the long Braudelien sweep of Southeast Asian history In doing so they seek both to debunk simplistic assumptions about fragile traditions and transformational modernities and to identify real repeating patterns in Southeast Asia s past clientelistic political structures periodic tectonic and climatic disasters ethnic occupational specializations long cycles of economic globalization and deglobalization Their contributions range across many centuries from the Austronesian expansion to the Aceh tsunami and from the Sanskrit cosmopolis to the Asian financial crisis The book is inspired by and dedicated to Peter Boomgaard a scholar whose work has embodied the Braudelien spirit in Southeast Asian historiography This title is available online in its entirety in Open Access

Dutch Culture Overseas Frances Gouda, 2008 European colonial expansion led to Dutch notions of civilised society or the Dutch s community s flexible and relatively charitable attitudes toward others being scattered as in the Greek word diaspeirein to the four corners of the earth In some cases the exportation of Dutch cultural values to places overseas like North America endowed Dutchness with subtle new meanings But in colonial Indonesia Dutch political customs and traditions were transformed in the process of migrating to exotic locales In this book Frances Gouda examines the ways in which the Netherlands portrayed its unique colonial style to the outside world Why were citizens of a small and politically insignificant European nation able to represent as natural and normal their dominance over ancient civilizations on islands such as Java and Bali How did Dutch colonial residents explain the cultural differences between themselves and the supposedly primitive peoples of the Indonesian archipelago In trying to understand the gendering practices of colonial governance in the Netherlands East Indies Gouda also explores the interactions of Dutch and Indonesian women with European men FRANCES GOUDA earned a Ph D in history from the University of Washington in Seattle in 1980 She is currently professor of history and gender studies in the Political Science Department of the University of Amsterdam '...
