SCF and APC E3 Ubiquitin Ligases in Tumorigenesis Hiroyuki Inuzuka, Wenyi Wei, 2014-03-28 This SpringerBrief explores the physiological roles of Skp1 Cullin1 F box Complex SCF and Anaphase Promoting Complex APC in normal cells and in tumor formation These two related multi subunit E3 ubiquitin ligase enzymes APC and SCF are thought to be the major driving forces governing proper cell cycle progression Defective cell cycle regulation leads to genomic instability and ultimately cancer development Selective degradation of key cell cycle regulators by the ubiquitin proteasome system has been proven to be a major regulatory mechanism for ensuring ordered and coordinated cell cycle progression The SCF and APC E3 ligases have been characterized to play pivotal roles in regulating the cell cycle progression by timely degrading various critical cell cycle regulators This Brief reviews recent studies that have shown that deregulation of signaling pathways in which the two ubiquitin ligases are involved causes aberrant cell cycle regulation in turn leading to tumorigenesis The text also discusses how SCF and APC may present promising therapeutic targets to treat various cancers

The Destroyer and the Lamb Matthias Reinhard Hoffmann,2005 Matthias Reinhard Hoffmann identifies an angelomorphic portrait of Christ in certain passages of Revelation and provides possible reasons for the inclusion of an angelomorphic Christology. Angelomorphic Christology is not regarded as an isolated christological concept. In turn, the author compares angelomorphic Christology with the prominent Lamb Christology of Revelation. A comparison of these concepts reveals that both Lamb and angelomorphic Christology serve the purpose of contrasting different functions of Christ. The functions correspond with the implied perception of Christ by his followers on the one hand and his opponents on the other. Accordingly, Christ appears to be an eschatological juridical figure described in angelomorphic patterns to his opposition while he is perceived as salvific redeemer in form of the Lamb by those who believe in him. Such a christological perspective draws on traditions from the Exodus narrative, namely the features of the Passover Lamb and the Destroying Angel. Further equality between God and Christ is established despite an angelomorphic portrait of Christ, especially those passages describing Christ as the Lamb put him on par with God. But also within visions with an angelomorphic description of Christ, his status as superior to angels and as an equal to God is displayed.
