A Companion to Research in Teacher Education Michael A. Peters, Bronwen Cowie, Ian Menter, 2017-05-31 This state of the art Companion assembles and assesses the extant research available on teacher education and provides clear guidelines on future directions It addresses an important need in a collection that will be of value for teachers teacher educators policymakers and politicians There has been little sustained long term or systematic research to provide empirical support for the broad aspects of teacher education policy largely because such research has been chronically underfunded and based on traditional practitioner knowledge Many of the changes to teacher education are contentious and yet are occurring in rapid succession These policies and movements have important consequences for education teacher quality and the future of the teaching profession At the same time the policies and initiatives that support these changes seem to be based more on ideology business interests and tradition than on research and empirical findings The nature quality and effectiveness of teacher preparation have increasingly become a central focus for education policy worldwide in a fiercely argued debate among governments think tanks world policy agencies education researchers and teacher organisations

New Writing Explorations Graeme Harper, 2025-03-25 This book New Writing Explorations Researching Creative Writing investigates creative writing as an area of research building from a recognition of its qualities as a creative human practice It presents a critical examination of current methodologies and highlights many of the latest advancements in the field of creative writing studies This book s contributors examine writerly knowledge and action places and spaces tested methods and an array of associated concepts Chapters draw not only on critical ideas formed by examining the works of creative writers but also on a range of individual writing activities and the lively and fluid dynamics we frequently encounter when we seek to use writing for both communication and art The chapters in this volume provide excellent examples of the many avenues of inquiry seen in both practice led and critical research in creative writing This volume is relevant for students and scholars interested in the field of creative writing and cognate fields The chapters in the book were originally published as articles and editorials in the New Writing journal They are accompanied by a new Introduction and Conclusion as well as a Foreword by award winning poet and critic Dan Disney Collaborative community partnerships across education settings Mariëtte P. Koen, Luiza O. De Souza, 2025-02-25 This book features chapters by scholars from various education fields specialising in sustainability As the first volume in North West University's Community based Educational Research Series it focuses on transforming education through a participatory approach The authors explore quality education across early childhood primary secondary and higher education by examining collaborative efforts among practitioners parents and teachers This scholarly book provides empirical evidence on how collaborative initiatives can promote sustainable development These initiatives encourage partnerships among community leaders educators learners nongovernmental organisations government and the private sector for lifelong learning and professional development It highlights southern African experiences in collaborative education aligned with the United Nations sustainable development goal of achieving quality education The book demonstrates various research designs and methods applied to educational practice from early childhood to tertiary levels through empirical research and community projects
