Cultural Contextualization of Apologetics Matt W. Lee, 2022-03-03 In the post Christian world we find sincere efforts in traditional Christian apologetics repeatedly running into invisible walls These blocks happen when cultural issues are neglected With mere rational arguments presented as a defense of Christianity logical answers alone are not attracting the nonbelievers nor resolving their skepticism People today have different obstacles in coming to the Christian faith particularly their own cultural presuppositions How do we present defend and commend Christianity to people whose culture gives them a frame of mind the one that cares very little about how rational the arguments are Cultural Contextualization of Apologetics explores the world of the New Testament and the ministry of the apostle Paul to excavate a fresh model for apologetics with cultural engagement to present an answer Matt W Lee analyzes the dynamics involved in Paul s cultural connection with his audience and how it relates to their receptivity uncovering a scheme of apologetics engagement patterned in his apologetics speeches From the background of Paul s world to the forefront of contemporary apologetics preaching Cultural Contextualization of Apologetics offers a vision of apologetics communication that is both biblical and practical

Theology of the New Testament Udo Schnelle,2009-11 For a few decades jet packs seemed to be everywhere on Gilligan s Island Lost in Space Thunderball and even the opening ceremony of the 1984 Olympics Inventors promised we d all be flying with them now enabling us to zoom around effortlessly in the sky and getting us to work without traffic jams and trains What happened to the jet pack In The Great American Jet Pack Steve Lehto gives us the definitive history of this and related devices explaining how the technology arose how it works and why we don t have them in our garages today These individual lift devices as they were blandly labeled by the government men who financed much of their development answered man s desire to simply step outside and take flight No runways no wings no pilot s license were required Soaring through the air with the wind in your face and landing anyplace there was room to stand could this be done Yes it could be and it was But the jet pack was perhaps the most overpromised technology of all time From the rocket belt to the jet belt to the flying platform and all the way to Yves Rossy s 21st century free flights using a jet powered wing this book profiles the inventors and pilots the hucksters and cheats the businessmen and soldiers who were involved with these machines And it finally tells a great American story of a technology whose promise may one day yet come to fruition

Ex Auditu - Volume 15 Klyne Snodgrass,2004-06-23

Destabilizing the Margins Marianne Bjelland Kartzow,2012-09-21 In this book Marianne Bjelland Kartzow suggests that ideas taken from recent discussions of multiple identities and intersectionality combined with insights from memory theory can renew our engagement with biblical texts Some marginal early Christian passages and what the scholarly community has reconstructed of their historical contexts are encountered looking for alternative ways these texts can produce meaning A fresh look at some marginal biblical figures such as male and female slaves who are beaten by a fellow slave the queer figure of the Ethiopian eunuch foreign Egyptian women rebellious widows or a possessed fortune telling slave girl can help biblical users to talk in more critical and creative ways about responsibility identity injustice violence inclusion exclusion and the intersections of gender sexuality race and class These perspectives may be relevant for those who see the New Testament as Christian canon or as cultural canon or as both

The Just and Loving Gaze of God with Us, Second Edition Henry Walter Spaulding III,2024-08-01 In recent years Paul has become the subject of renewed interest among political philosophers These philosophers deploy Paul as a means to deconstruct late modern political issues such as liberalism biopolitics and sovereignty However these philosophers ultimately truncate Paul s message to fit nontheistic materialist ends Such an approach polarizes interpreters often leading either to a full endorsement or full rejection In this work Spaulding adds a needed voice in this conversation By neither fully endorsing or fully rejecting the new approach to Paul Spaulding argues that Paul s message is both materialist and faithful to the Christian tradition Spaulding critically utilizes both the new approach and recent studies in apocalyptic interpretations of Paul in order to articulate a Pauline political theology for our time Pauline apocalyptic emphasizes the already disruptive nature of the incarnation crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth that wrests humanity from under the sovereignty of the fallen powers and places them under the Lordship of Christ Apocalyptic is nourished by the promise of the eschatological hope of the not yet finished work of Christ The church that follows the Lordship of Christ is called forth into being in the tension of the present Lordship of Christ and the not yet transformation of the cosmos Such a tension begets practices that form the political commitment of what philosopher Iris Murdoch calls the just and loving gaze namely the central conviction that in order to live good political lives one must be taught to see
