Administrative Courts in Indonesia Adriaan Bedner, 2001-06-20 In 1991 Indonesia introduced a system of administrative courts that was to contribute to establishing the rule of law in Indonesia and to provide recourse for citizens against unlawful administrative behaviour This book evaluates the performance of the administrative court system It explains why the courts were established in spite of the Indonesian state's authoritarian nature and why and to what extent the system is a Dutch legal transplant It analyses the jurisdictionary powers of the courts and how the courts have used them It then proceeds to explain the unbalanced nature of the record presented by analysing factors inside and outside the administrative court organisation which influence its performance These include budgetary deficits lack of training opportunities career manipulation corruption lack of government support and many other non legal issues Finally the author provides a number of recommendations for change many of which may also be of use to other developing countries Administrative Courts in

Muttaqin, 2024-12-16 This book examines Indonesian laws regulating state administration in other words the relationship between the Indonesian government and its citizens This book uses public administration science to explain state administrative law It covers the historical evolution of state administrative law in Indonesia the political and legal acceptance of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights in Indonesia as well as the ratification of the 2020 Omnibus Law reforms It evaluates both the benefits and drawbacks of establishing laws through the Omnibus Law model and the challenges of its adoption by the Indonesian statutory system The book also examines state administrative law in other Southeast Asian countries to provide a more nuanced understanding of how human rights implementation occurs in the respective legal regimes Covering the legal reforms and changes to state administrative law in Indonesia this book will be of keen interest to scholars of state administrative law public administration and constitutional law The Constitution of Indonesia Simon Butt, Tim Lindsey, 2012-08-29 For decades Indonesia's 1945 Constitution the second shortest in the modern world was used as an apologia by successive authoritarian regimes A bare bones text originally intended as a temporary measure it did little beyond establish basic state organs including a powerful presidency It did not offer citizens real guarantees or protections These weaknesses were ruthlessly exploited by the military backed regime that President Soeharto headed from 1966 until his fall in 1998 The first ever amendments to the Constitution which began the following year and were completed in 2002 changed all this Enlarging and rethinking the Constitution they ushered in a liberal democratic system based around human rights an open society and separation of powers These reforms also created a Constitutional Court that has provided Indonesia s first judicial forum for serious debate on the interpretation and application of the Constitution as well as its first significant and easily accessible body of detailed and reasoned judgments Today Indonesian constitutional law is rich sophisticated and complex This book surveys this remarkable constitutional transition assessing the implementation of Indonesia s new constitutional model and identifying its weaknesses After covering key institutions exercising executive legislative and judicial powers the book focuses on current constitutional debates ranging from human rights to decentralisation religious freedom and control of the economy Indonesian Law Tim Lindsey, Simon Butt, 2018-09-06

Indonesia has a growing population of almost 300 million people it is increasingly involved in world affairs and has a booming economy The need to better understand its unique complex and often obscure legal system has become pressing This is true across a wide range of sectors including but not limited to trade and investment crime and terrorism and human rights Indonesia s democratization after the fall of Soeharto in 1998 triggered massive social and political changes that opened up this diverse and formerly tightly controlled society Law reform was a key driver of Indonesia s transformation and its full effect remains to be seen This book offers clear and detailed explanations of the foundations of Indonesia s legal system in the context of its legal reform and rapid development It offers succinct commentaries on a wide range of issues examining the judicial process the constitution corruption and the court system contract law administrative law foreign investment taxation Islamic law and family law It examines current substantive law and judicial interpretation and presents case studies of how the system operates in practice Written in an accessible and engaging style this book is an essential guide for readers seeking quick and clear answers to questions regarding the law and its application in Indonesia The System of Administrative Courts in Indonesia Normawati Hashim, 1998 Public Administration in Indonesia Rainer Rohdewohld, 1995

Administrative Courts in an Executive-dominated State A. Bedner, 1997 Expanding a franchise business in Indonesia Angel Berlian Fonataba, 2019-03-28 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2018 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance Anhalt University of Applied Sciences language English abstract The purpose of this dissertation is to answer the research questions why should the Coffee Club expand a franchise business in Indonesia how can the Coffee Club enter the Indonesian market and what are the business risks along with a solution s Data has been collected through primary and secondary research by conducting observation and interview Indonesia is a great potential franchise partner for the Coffee Club because of two factors including strategic goal with location and cultural and institutional distances of the different entry country To obtain and maintain a sustainable marketing a franchisor must apply the triple bottom line for creating communicating and delivering value to customers Other than that new franchisors who wish to enter the Indonesian market should follow the Minister of Trade s regulation Regulation 53 which requires that eighty per cent of the raw materials must be local products The franchisor and the franchisee need to adjust their similarities and dissimilarities in the scope of culture value to maintain a long term relationship Before entering the Indonesian market a franchisor is fully adviced to conduct research and development to be more familiar with the other additional aspects in order to protect their business from potential risks The limitations to the research are lack of information poor understanding of the respondent against the explanation of the researcher interpretation may introduce a bias and the lack of validity how to build the truthfulness of the respondents Japanese Military Administration in Indonesia Waseda Daigaku.
