This handbook is divided into seven parts, each addressing a different aspect of rural criminology: Rurality and crime; Criminological dimensions of food and agriculture; Violence and rurality; Drug use, production and trafficking in the rural context; Intersections between rural and green criminology; Policing justice and rurality; Teaching rural criminology. Edited by a world renowned scholar of rural criminology, this book explores rural crime issues in over thirty-five countries including Japan, Sweden, Brazil, Australia, Tanzania, the US and the UK. This is the first Handbook dedicated to rural criminology and is an essential resource for criminologists, sociologists and social geographers engaged with rural studies and crime.
