Research Handbook on Critical Legal Theory Emiliós Christodoulidis, Ruth Dukes, Marco Goldoni, 2019 Critical theory characteristically linked with the politics of theoretical engagement covers the manifold of the connections between theory and praxis This thought provoking Research Handbook captures the broad range of those connections as far as legal thought is concerned and retains an emphasis both on the politics of theory and on the notion of theoretical engagement The first part examines the question of definition and tracks the origins and development of critical legal theory along its European and North American trajectories The second part looks at the thematic connections between the development of legal theory and other currents of critical thought such as Feminism Marxism Critical Race Theory varieties of post modernism as well as the various turns ethical aesthetic political of critical legal theory The third and final part explores particular fields of law addressing the question how the field has been shaped by critical legal theory or what critical approaches reveal about the field with the clear focus on opportunities for social transformation

Legal Geography Tayanah O'Donnell, Daniel F. Robinson, Josephine Gillespie, 2019-12-06 This book is the first legal geography book to explicitly engage in method It complements this by also bringing together different perspectives on the emerging school of legal geography It explores human environment interactions and showcases distinct environmental legal geography scholarship Legal Geography Perspectives and Methods is an innovative book concerned with a new relational and material way of examining our legal spatial world With chapters examining natural resource management Indigenous knowledge and political ecology scholarship the text introduces legal geography's modes of analysis and critique The book explores topics such as Indigenous environmental rights the impacts of extractive industries mediation of climate change food animal and plant patents fossil fuels mining and coastal environments based on empirical jurisdictional and methodological insights from Australia New Zealand and the Asia Pacific to demonstrate how space and place are invoked in legal processes and contestations and the methods that may be employed to explore these processes and contestations This book examines the role of legal geographies in the 21st century beyond the simple law in action and it will thus appeal to students of socio legal studies human geography environmental studies environmental policy as well as politics and international relations

Palgrave Handbook of Critical Posthumanism Stefan Herbrechter, Ivan Callus, Manuela Rossini, Marija Grech, Megen de Bruin-Molé, Christopher John Müller, 2022-11-28 Palgrave Handbook of Critical Posthumanism is a major reference work on the paradigm emerging from the challenges to humanism humanity and the human posed by the erosion of the traditional demarcations between the human and nonhuman This handbook surveys and speculates on the ways in which the posthumanist paradigm emerged transformed and might further develop across the humanities With its focus on the posthuman as a figure on posthumanism as a social discourse and on posthumanisation as an on going historical and ontological process the volume highlights the relationship between the humanities and sciences The essays engage with posthumanism in connection with subfields like the environmental humanities health humanities animal studies and disability studies The book also traces the historical representations and understanding of posthumanism across time Additionally the contributions address genre and forms such as autobiography games art film museums and topics such as climate change speciesism anthropocentrism and biopolitics to name a few This handbook considers posthumanism s impact across disciplines and areas of study Blue Legalities Irus Braverman,Elizabeth R. Johnson,2020-01-17

The ocean and its inhabitants sketch and stretch our understandings of law in unexpected ways Inspired by the blue turn in the social sciences and humanities Blue Legalities explores how regulatory frameworks and governmental infrastructures are made reworked and contested in the oceans Its interdisciplinary contributors analyze topics that range from militarization and Maori cosmologies to island building in the South China Sea and underwater robotics Throughout Blue Legalities illuminates the vast and unusual challenges associated with regulating the turbulent materialities and lives of the sea Offering much more than an analysis of legal frameworks the chapters in this volume show how the more than human ocean is central to the construction of terrestrial institutions and modes of governance By thinking with the more than human ocean Blue Legalities questions what we think we know and what we don t know about oceans our earthly planet and ourselves Contributors Stacy Alaimo Amy Braun Irus Braverman Holly Jean Buck Jennifer L Gaynor Stefan Helmreich Elizabeth R Johnson Stephanie Jones Zsofia Korosy Berit Kristoffersen Jessica Lehman Astrida Neimanis Susan Reid Alison Rieser Katherine G Sammler Astrid Schrader Kristen L Shake Phil Steinberg The Law's Ultimate Frontier: Towards an Ecological Jurisprudence Horatia Muir Watt,2023-05-18 This important book offers an ambitious and interdisciplinary vision of how private international law or the conflict of laws might serve as a heuristic for re working our general understandings of legality in directions that respond to ever deepening global ecological crises Unusual in legal scholarship the author borrows in bricolage mode from the work of Bruno Latour alongside indigenous cosmologies extinction theories and Levinassian phenomenology to demonstrate why this field s specific frontier location at the outpost of the law where it is viewed from the outside as obscure and from the inside as a self contained normative world generates its potential power to transform law generally and globally Combining pragmatic and pluralist theory with an excavation of shadow ecological dimensions of law the author a recognised authority within the field as conventionally understood offers a truly global view Put simply it is a generational magnum opus All international and transnational lawyers be they in the private or public field should read this book Animal People Adam Reed,2025-01-15 Animal People introduces readers to the professionalized world of animal protection from the perspective of those who consider themselves to be moderate activists Adam Reed explores the interrelationships between moral cause and organizational culture including the ways in which expert roles such as investigator and lobbyist inform the practice and outlook of animal protection This book examines not only connections between forms of professionalism and everyday advocacy but also how those working to improve the welfare of animals can come to possess an expertise in public or mainstream ethics Reed explores these issues through the example of a Scottish based animal protection organization Animal People makes a distinctive contribution to anthropological debate and discussion relating to human and nonhuman animal interactions activism and the attributions and imperatives of moral action
