ALL THINGS FALL APART

And Then Things Fall Apart

Ernest Emenyonu

And Then Things Fall Apart:

And Then Things Fall Apart Arlaina Tibensky, 2011-07-26 Keek's life was totally perfect. Keek and her boyfriend just had their Worst Fight Ever; her best friend heinously betrayed her; her parents are divorcing; and her mom's across the country caring for her newborn cousin who may or may not make it home from the hospital. To top it all off, Keek's got the plague. Well, the chicken pox. Now she's holed up at her grandmother's technologically barren house until further notice. Not quite the summer vacation Keek had in mind. With only an old typewriter and Sylvia Plath's The Bell Jar for solace and guidance, Keek's alone with her swirling thoughts. But one thing's clear through her feverish haze: she's got to figure out why things went wrong so she can put them right.

Chinua Achebe and the Igbo-African World Chima J. Korie, Ijeoma C. Nwajiaku, 2022-04-12 Chinua Achebe and the Igbo African World: Between Fiction, Fact, and Historical Representation explores Chinua Achebe's literary works and how they communicated the Igbo African world to readers. Engaging in the politics of representation, Achebe sought to demystify deterministic views of race and cultural ethnocentrism. While his books and commentaries have been very influential in shaping a unique and multifaceted view of the African world, some scholars have challenged Achebe's representations of historical reality. Through in-depth analyses of his writing, contributors examine the interpretations Achebe imposed on African culture and history in his texts. The chapters cover Achebe's engagement with critical issues like historical representation, gender relations, and indigenous political institutions in a changing society. Throughout, contributors present new ways for understanding Achebe's literary works and show how his work draws from African historical reality and identity while challenging Western epistemological hegemony.

Approaches to the African Novel Charles E. Nnolim, 2010 This Third Edition of Approaches to the African Novel is a child of necessity. Because of the unfortunate death of the publisher of Saros International, who issued the First Edition, and high demand, this third enlarged edition has become imperative. Three new essays, all previously published, are added: two expectedly on Achebe, the father of the African novel, and one on Mongp Beti's Mission to Kala, which was partially anthologised in Contemporary Literary Criticism, Volume 27, 1984. Achebe's Things Fall Apart as an Igbo national epic has evoked a spate of reactions from critics of African literature, especially the troika Chinweizu et al. in Toward the Decolonization of African Literature. It was also anthologised in Modern Black Literature, edited by S. Okechukwu Menu, 1971. The essay on Arrow of God, whose structure and meaning has been largely avoided by other critics, is included here for further airing. For gender balance, as the previous volume contained no essays on women writers, an essay on Flora Nwapa has been added. Since the novels discussed in this volume exclusively are on the African literature south of the Sahara, the last essay on Peter Abrahams comes in to round out this collection of essays with a study of a South African writer for geographical balance.

Contemporary African Literature and the Politics of Gender Florence Stratton, 2020-09-23 The influence of colonialism and race on the development of African literature has been the subject of a number of studies. The effect of patriarchy and gender, however, and indeed the contributions of African women have up until now been largely ignored by the critics Contemporary African Literature and the Politics of Gender is the first extensive account of African literature from a feminist perspective In this first radical and exciting work Florence Stratton outlines the features of an emerging female tradition in African fiction A chapter is dedicated to each to the works of four women writers Grace Ogot Flora Nwapa Buchi Emecheta and Mariama Ba In addition she provides challenging new readings of canonical male authors such as Chinua Achebe Ngugi wa Thiongo o and Wole Soyinka Contemporary African Literature and the Politics of Gender thus provides the first truly comprehensive definition of the current literary tradition in Africa Emerging Perspectives on Chinua Achebe Ernest Emenyonu,2004 This compendium of 37 essays provides global perspectives of Achebe as an artist with a proper sense of history and an imaginative writer with an inviolable sense of cultural mission and political commitment Achebe's Things Fall Apart Ode Ogede,2007-03-16 Reader s Guides provide a comprehensive starting point for any advanced student giving an overview of the context criticism and influence of key works Each guide also offers students fresh critical insights and provides a practical introduction to close reading and to analysing literary language and form They provide up to date authoritative but accessible guides to the most commonly studied classic texts Chinua Achebe s remarkable novel Things Fall Apart 1958 is probably the best known African novel and has become one of the world s most influential literary masterpieces Since publication a total of nearly 12 million copies have been sold with translations into more than 50 languages Despite its undoubted success its apparent simplicity has tended to blind readers to the dazzling storytelling resources and the inventive language plot setting and characterization which first draw them to the novel and keep them reading This is the ideal guide to the text setting Things Fall Apart in its historical intellectual and cultural contexts offering analyses of its themes style and structure providing exemplary close readings presenting an up to date account of its critical reception and examining its afterlife in literature film and popular culture It includes points for discussion suggestions for further study and an annotated guide to relevant reading Teaching Literature Using Dialogic Literary Argumentation Matt Seymour,Theresa Thanos,George E. Newell,David Bloome,2020-04-23 Introducing a new framework for teaching and learning literature in secondary schools this book presents Dialogic Literary Argumentation as an inquiry based approach to engage students in communicating and exploring ideas about literature As a process of discovery Dialogic Literary Argumentation facilitates conversation arguing to learn as a method to support students diverse perspectives and engagement with one another in order to develop individual and collective understandings of literature and their place in the world Covering both the theoretical foundation and application of this method this book demonstrates how to apply Dialogic Literary Argumentation to teach literature in a way that foregrounds dialogue learning through inquiry diverse views listening to others and engagement with our communities Ideal for preservice teachers in literacy methods courses and practicing teachers it features real world cases discussions of the principles presented resource lists and conversation starters for professional learning communities professional development and teacher education The Cambridge Companion to the African Novel F. Abiola Irele, 2009-07-23 Africa's strong tradition of storytelling has long been an expression of an oral narrative culture African writers such as Amos Tutuola, Naguib Mahfouz, Wole Soyinka and J. M. Coetzee have adapted these older forms to develop and enhance the genre of the novel in a shift from the oral mode to print. Comprehensive in scope, these new essays cover the fiction in the European languages from North Africa and Africa south of the Sahara as well as in Arabic. They highlight the themes and styles of the African novel through an examination of the works that have either attained canonical status; an entire chapter is devoted to the work of Chinua Achebe or can be expected to do so. Including a guide to further reading and a chronology, this is the ideal starting point for students of African and world literatures. Sacred Spaces and Public Quarrels Paul Tiyambe Zeleza, Ezekiel Kalipeni, 1999 How do Africans conceive space? How are places constructed and imagined? How do the conceptions, constructions, imaginings of spaces and places affect and in turn are affected by social, economic and political change? These are some of the questions answered in this, the first book of its kind to address systematically the themes of space and spatiality. Things Fall Apart Chinua Achebe, 2009 The contemporary African writer's classic novel depicting the destruction of traditional tribal life by the white man.
