Angelic Mistakes The Art Of Thomas Merton:

Angelic Mistakes Roger Lipsey, 2006 Striking new insights into the life and thoughts of the beloved spiritual writer are presented through his rarely seen visual art produced in the last decade of his life This collection presents 40 of the most telling examples of Merton's art each accompanied by an excerpt from Merton's own writing on art Thinking through Thomas Merton Robert Inchausti, 2014-01-10 With the publication of The Seven Storey Mountain in 1948 Thomas Merton became a bestselling author writing about spiritual contemplation in a modern context Although Merton 1915-1968 lived as a Trappist monk he advocated a spiritual life that was not a retreat from the world but an alternative to it particularly to the deadening materialism and spiritual vacuity of the postwar West Over the next twenty years Merton wrote for a wide audience bringing the wisdom of Christianity Buddhism and Sufism into dialogue with the period's contemporary thought In Thinking through Thomas Merton Robert Inchausti introduces readers to Merton and evaluates his continuing relevance for our time Inchausti shows how Merton broke the high modernist trance so that we might become the change we wish to see in the world by refiguring the lost virtues of silence contemplation and community in a world enamored by the will to power virtuoso performance radical skepticism and materialist metaphysics Merton's defense of contemplative culture is considered in light of the postmodern thought of recent years and emerges as a compelling alternative Thomas Merton—Evil and

Why We Suffer David E. Orbertson, 2018-06-18 Thomas Merton is one of the most important spiritual voices of the last century He has never been more relevant as new generations look to him for guidance in addressing some of life's biggest questions how can we find God how should we engage with other faiths and how can we oppose violence and injustice Looking carefully one can find tucked away in Merton's prodigious writings his response to another timeless question Why do we suffer Why does an all powerful and all loving God permit evil and suffering By carefully examining all of Merton's work we find that he repeatedly confronted this question throughout most of his adult life Intriguingly Merton's approach to this question changed dramatically a few years before he died in 1968 An examination of all aspects of his life yields evidence that Merton's immersion in Zen during this time contributed most to that change The Environmental Vision of

Thomas Merton Monica Weis, 2011-06-24 Delightful a superb guide to the ecological themes of Merton's life and writings The Christian Century Nature was always vital in Thomas Merton's life from the long hours he spent as a child watching his father paint landscapes in the fresh air to his final years of solitude in the hermitage at Our Lady of Gethsemani where he contemplated and wrote about the beauty of his surroundings Throughout his life Merton's study of the natural world shaped his spirituality in profound ways and he was one of the first writers to raise concern about ecological issues that have become critical in recent years In The Environmental Vision of Thomas Merton Monica Weis suggests that Merton's interest in nature which developed significantly during his years at the Abbey of Gethsemani laid the foundation for his growing environmental consciousness Tracing Merton's awareness of the natural world from his childhood to the final years of his life Weis explores his deepening sense of place and desire for solitude his love and responsibility for all living things and his evolving ecological awareness Explains how Merton evolved from a nature enthusiast to one of the world's most respected ecological stewards

The Letters of Thomas Merton and Victor and Carolyn Hammer F. Douglas Scutchfield, Paul Evans Holbrook Jr., 2014-12-25 Poet social justice advocate and theologian Thomas Merton 1915-1968 is arguably the most influential American Catholic author of the twentieth century In his short lifetime he penned over seventy books and maintained a brisk correspondence with colleagues around the globe However many Merton scholars and fans remain unaware of the significant body of letters that were exchanged between the Trappist monk and Victor and Carolyn Hammer Unable to leave his home at the Abbey of Gethsemani except on special occasions Merton developed a unique friendship with this couple from nearby Lexington Kentucky Carolyn who supplied Merton with many of the books he required for his writing and teaching was a founder of the King Library Press at the University of Kentucky Victor was an accomplished painter sculptor printer and architect The friendship and collaborations between Merton and the Hammers reveal their shared interest in the convergence of art literature and spirituality In this volume editors F Douglas Scutchfield and Paul Evans Holbrook Jr have collected the trio's complete correspondence for the first time Their letters arranged chronologically vividly demonstrate a blossoming intellectual camaraderie and provide a unique opportunity to understand Merton's evolving philosophies At times humorous often profound the letters in this volume shed light on a rare friendship and offer new insights into the creative intellect of Thomas Merton An Asian Woman's Religious Journey with Thomas Merton Jung Eun Sophia Park, 2021-11-30 Join Jung Eun Sophia Park on her personal quest for God and her true self through the writings of Thomas Merton Approaching Merton as an Asian immigrant feminist in the postcolonial era Park's perspective is a unique one and in this dance sometimes it is her and sometimes Merton who leads Throughout Eastern and Western spirituality are organically woven together in reflection on Merton's narratives and in the examination of late capitalism poverty beauty and violence These reflections are insightful provocative and illuminating particularly with regard to his androcentric spirituality especially as it relates to his relationships with women The Insurmountable Darkness of Love Douglas E. Christie, 2022 This book is a reflection on the meaning of spiritual darkness especially those difficult places in human experience where meaning seems to elude us where we are emptied out and are compelled to dig deeper into who we truly are Douglas E Christie takes up this facet of experience in ordinary human experience but also in relation to the Christian contemplative and mystical traditions where such experience is often understood to be both painful and transformative allowing the mind and heart to open in love Authenticity, Passion, and Advocacy Thomas E. Malewitz, 2020-07-08 Adolescence can be best summarized as a time of authenticity passion and advocacy As adolescents start maturing on a life journey that leads them away from dependence on their parents to becoming an independent adult they often seek out honest and transparent mentors to learn from and trust for wisdom and guidance Although Thomas Merton the celebrated spiritual author and Cistercian monk is better remembered for his writings on ecumenism nonviolence and advocacy he also had several documented correspondences with adolescents throughout his life By examining these artifacts it is clear that Thomas Merton had great insight into the spiritual needs and challenges of adolescents Throughout his life Merton s authentic struggles often parallel the searching nature that defines adolescent spirituality Through scholarship and practice this book will explore how the life and writings of Thomas Merton may serve as a guide and bridge for ministers of adolescents and will offer some practical suggestions for ministers educators and parents on topics affecting contemporary adolescents through the lens of Thomas Merton s life and writings

Make Peace before the Sun Goes Down Roger Lipsey, 2015-05-19 In the 1950s and 60s Thomas Merton a monk of the Trappist monastery of Gethsemani in Kentucky published a string of books that are among the most influential spiritual books of the twentieth century including the mega best seller The Seven Storey Mountain He was something of a rock star for a cloistered monk and from his monastic cell he enjoyed a wide and lively correspondence with people from the worlds of religion literature and politics During that period he also explored and wrote extensively on Buddhism Sufism art and social action The man to whom he owed obedience in the cloistered life was a much more traditional Catholic his abbot Dom James Fox To say that these two men had a conflicted relationship would be an understatement but the tension their differences in orientation brought actually led to creative results on both sides and to a kind of hard won respect and love Roger Lipsey s portrait of this unusual relationship is compelling and moving it shows Merton in the years his imagination was taking him far beyond the walls of the monastery and eventually literally to Asia
