Animal Vegetable Mineral Ethics And Objects:

Medieval Women and Their Objects Jennifer Adams, Nancy Bradbury, 2021-03-11 The essays gathered in this volume present multifaceted considerations of the intersection of objects and gender within the cultural contexts of late medieval France and England Some take a material view of objects showing buildings books and pictures as sites of gender negotiation and resistance and as extensions of women s bodies Others reconsider the concept of objectification in the lives of fictional and historical medieval women by looking closely at their relation to gendered material objects taken literally as women s possessions and as figurative manifestations of their desires The opening section looks at how medieval authors imagined fictional and legendary women using particular objects in ways that reinforce or challenge gender roles These women bring objects into the orbit of gender identity employing and relating to them in a literal sense while also taking advantage of their symbolic meanings The second section focuses on the use of texts both as objects in their own right and as mechanisms by which other objects are defined The possessors of objects in these essays lived in the world their lives documented by historical records yet like their fictional and legendary counterparts they too used objects for instrumental ends and with symbolic resonances The final section considers the objectification of medieval women s bodies as well as its limits While this at times seems to allow for a trade in women authorial attempts to give definitive shapes and boundaries to women s bodies either complicate the gender boundaries they try to contain or reduce gender to an ideological abstraction This volume contributes to the ongoing effort to calibrate female agency in the late Middle Ages honoring the groundbreaking work of Carolyn P Collette The Oxford Handbook of Early Christian Archaeology David K. Pettegrew, William Rodney Caraher, Thomas W. Davis, 2019 This handbook brings together work by leading scholars of the archaeology of early Christianity in the Mediterranean and surrounding regions The 34 essays to this volume ground the history culture and society of the first seven centuries of Christianity in the latest currents of archaeological method theory and research

Spiritual Taxonomies and Ritual Authority Heidi Marx-Wolf, 2016-02-02 Spiritual Taxonomies and Ritual Authority recounts how philosophers of the late third century C E organized the spirit world into hierarchies positioning themselves as high priests in the process By establishing themselves as experts on sacred matters they fortified their authority prestige and reputation The Routledge Handbook of Shakespeare and Animals Karen Raber, Holly Dugan, 2020-08-10

Shakespeare s plays have a long and varied performance history The relevance of his plays in literary studies cannot be understated but only recently have scholars been looking into the presence and significance of animals within the canon Readers will quickly find without having to do extensive research that the plays are teeming with animals In this Handbook Karen Raber and Holly Dugan delve deep into Shakespeare s World to illuminate and understand the use of animals in his span of work This volume supplies a valuable resource offering a broad and thorough grounding in the many ways animal references and the appearance of actual animals in the plays can be interpreted It provides a thorough overview demonstrates rigorous original research and charts new frontiers in the field through a broad variety of contributions from an international group of well known and respected scholars

The Routledge Handbook of Material Culture in Early Modern Europe Catherine Richardson, Tara Hamling, David Gaimster, 2016-09-13 The Routledge Handbook of Material Culture in Early Modern Europe marks the arrival of early modern material culture studies as a vibrant fully established field of multi disciplinary research The volume provides a rounded accessible collection of work on the nature and significance of materiality in early modern Europe a term that embraces a vast range of objects as well as addressing a wide variety of human interactions with their physical environments This stimulating view of materiality is distinctive in asking questions about the whole material world as a context for lived experience and the book considers material interactions at all social levels There are 27 chapters by leading experts as well as 13 feature object studies to highlight specific items that have survived from this period defined broadly as c 1500 c 1800 These contributions explore the things people acquired owned treasured displayed and discarded the spaces in which people used and thought about things the social relationships which cluster around goods between producers vendors and consumers of various kinds and the way knowledge travels around those circuits of connection The content also engages with wider issues such as the relationship between public and private life the changing connections between the sacred and the profane or the effects of gender and social status upon lived experience Constructed as an accessible wide ranging guide to research practice the book describes and represents the methods which have been developed within various disciplines for analysing pre modern material culture It comprises four sections which open up the approaches of various disciplines to non specialists Definitions disciplines new directions Contexts and categories Object studies and Material culture in action This volume addresses the need for sustained coherent comment on the state breadth and potential of this lively new field including the work of historians art historians museum curators archaeologists social scientists and literary scholars It consolidates and communicates recent developments and considers how we might take forward a multi disciplinary research agenda for the study of material culture in periods before the mass production of goods

Readings in the Anthropocene Sabine Wilke, Japhet Johnstone, 2017-09-21 Readings in the Anthropocene brings together scholars from German Studies and beyond to interpret the German tradition of the last two hundred years from a perspective that is mindful of the challenge posed by the concept of the Anthropocene This new age of man unofficially pronounced in 2000 holds that humans are becoming a geological force in shaping the Earth s future Among the biggest challenges facing our future are climate change accelerated species loss and a radical transformation of land use What are the historical philosophical cultural literary and artistic responses to this new concept The essays in this volume bring German culture to bear on what it means to live in the Anthropocene from a historical ethical and aesthetic perspective

Ecologies of Inception Simone Ferracina, 2022-05-30 Responding to increasing levels of planetary pollution waste generation carbon dioxide emission and environmental collapse Ecologies of Inception re thinks potentiality an object s ability to change in architecture and design The book problematizes the still prevailing modern paradigm of design practice the technical tabula rasa a tendency to begin from scratch and use raw amorphous and obedient materials that can be easily and effectively manipulated facilitating a seamless and faithful embodiment of intentions Instead the philosophy of design developed in the text prompts through a variety of case studies thinkers and disciplines a collective reconsideration of value dissociating it from the projects and signatures of any one author or generation Whereas the merits of up cycling and circular design are canonically defined vis vis status quo economic and socio cultural orthodoxies this project unpacks the theoretical assumptions that underpin these practices showing that they perpetuate the same biases and exclusions that generate waste in the first place As an alternative the book introduces a nodal and exaptive paradigm for design a conceptual and methodological toolset for engaging the durational and anthropocenic materiality of the third millennium and for radically prioritizing practices of maintenance reuse care and co option This approach which is inspired by and builds upon evolutionary biology technological disobedience queer use adaptive reuse experimental preservation and improvisational practices such as collage adhocism bricolage and kit bashing refuses to reduce pre existing material substrates to abstract lists of properties or featureless lumps encountering them on their own terms as situated individuals and co authors Ecologies of Inception will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students educators and professional architects and designers interested in sustainable design and seeking to develop conceptual and design tools commensurate with the magnitude and urgency of the climate emergency

Anglo-Saxon Literary Landscapes Heide Estes, 2025-10-01 Literary scholars have traditionally understood landscapes whether natural or manmade as metaphors for humanity instead of concrete settings for people s actions This book accepts the natural world as such by investigating how Anglo Saxons interacted with and conceived of their lived environments Examining Old English poems such as Beowulf and Judith as well as descriptions of natural events from the Anglo Saxon Chronicle and other documentary texts Heide Estes shows that Anglo Saxon ideologies which view nature as diametrically opposed to humans and the natural world as designed for human use have become deeply embedded in our cultural heritage language and more

Unbecoming Human Cimatti Felice Cimatti, 2020-03-02 The animality of human beings is completely unknown Being human means to be something other than an animal to not be an animal Felice Cimatti with reference to the work of Gilles Deleuze explores what human animality looks like He shows that becoming animal means to stop thinking of humanity as the reference point of nature and the world It means that our value as humans has the very same value as a cloud a rock or a spider Drawing on a wide range of texts from philosophical ethology to classical texts to continental philosophy and literature Cimatti creates a dialogue with Flaubert Derrida Temple Grandin Heidegger as well as Malaparte and Landolfi as part of this intriguing discussion about our humanity and our unknown animality

The Shakespearean International Yearbook Tiffany Werth, 2017-05-15 This eighth volume of The Shakespearean International Yearbook presents a special section on European Shakespeares proceeding from the claim that Shakespeare's literary craft was not just native English or British but was filtered and fashioned through a Renaissance awareness that needs to be recognized as European and that has had effects and afterlives across the Continent. Guest editors Ton Hoenselaars and Clara Calvo have constructed this section to highlight both how the spread of Shakespeare throughout Europe has brought together the energies of a wide variety of European cultures across several centuries and how the inclusion of Shakespeare in European culture has been not only a European but also a world affair. The Shakespearean International Yearbook continues to provide an annual survey of important issues and developments in contemporary Shakespeare studies. Contributors to this issue come from the US and the UK, Spain, Switzerland, and South Africa, Canada, The Netherlands, India, Portugal, Greece, France, and Hungary. In addition to the section on European Shakespeares, this volume includes essays on the genre of romance, issues of character, and other topics.
