A Topic for Everyone Pat Brill, Karen Fusco, 2024-12-17 Self-Help Support Groups For Older Women Lenard W. Kaye, 2022-01-26 This work is based upon a research study whose purpose was to collect new information about the special benefits and drawbacks of formal organizations efforts at social network building for older women In it a two tiered investigation was carried out a national review of a select group of model self help support programmes for older women throughout the United States and an in depth community case study of a nationally recognized model program of self help support groups leadership training networking and community outreach education for older women It provides the research oriented reader with scientific evidence to assess the relative efficacy of self help group programming Experiential Activities for Intercultural Learning H. Ned Seelye, 1995-12-01 The need for new approaches methods and techniques in cross cultural training and intercultural education are virtually insatiable especially for experiential activities The emphasis in this book is on activities that foster the development of intercultural awareness and cross cultural sensitivity helping learners understand some of the principal dimensions of intercultural communication cross cultural human relations and cultural diversity The selections include simulations case studies role plays critical incidents and individual and group exercises A number address relatively complex workplace issues others focus on intercultural dynamics in educational contexts Some are printed here for the first time others are culled from less accessible sources They range from basic introductory activities to those that facilitate the exploration of intercultural issues in significant depth In an introductory essay Sheila Ramsey an experienced scholar and trainer examines the nature of intercultural training and lays out a conceptual framework for assessing its effectiveness The rest of the book is made up of activities organized around six facets of intercultural contact cultural differences for beginners understanding oneself as a cultural person the intercultural perspective working across cultures cross cultural foul ups and returning home Each section opens with an introduction followed by activities Each activity includes at a minimum objectives audience materials required setting time required and procedure for facilitation Many of the activities include handouts or illustrations This book will be especially valuable for trainers and educators who want to further ground their work in a solid theoretical base and at the same time augment their resources to expand their repertoire Models for Practice With Immigrants and Refugees Aimee Hilado, Marta Lundy, 2017-04-06 Designed to establish a foundational framework for working with trauma exposed immigrants and refugees Models for Practice With Immigrants and Refugees Collaboration Cultural Awareness and Integrative Theory by Aimee Hilado and Marta Lundy introduces innovative approaches to address client mental health problems while supporting adjustment to life in a new country This practice oriented book emphasizes the relevance of Western approaches while reorienting Western concepts to be more culturally sensitive from a domestic and international perspective Grounded in critical thinking and strengthened by an ecological systems perspective the book presents six different models for applying and integrating Western theory and related practice strategies for working with individuals families groups communities organizations volunteers and local workforces Using Groupwork Mark Doel,2005-11-14 Written by an experienced groupworker and academic this book promotes greater knowledge and understanding of groupwork and group processes particularly in social work and social care settings Incorporating both theory and practice it provides a practical guide to those considering groupwork and further inspiration for those already involved The book incorporates a number of case examples of groups run in mainstream social work social care and multidisciplinary settings Skills based in approach this original text includes illustrative group examples quotes from groupworkers key learning points based on research activities to develop practice suggestions for further reading Published in association with Community Care Magazine the book meets the changing needs of today s students and practitioners in social care and is a welcome addition to the current literature

Men and Women in Interaction Elizabeth Aries,1996-02-29 For many years the dominant focus in gender relations has been the differences between men and women Authors such as Deborah Tannen You Just Don t Understand and John Gray Men are from Mars Women are from Venus have argued that there are deep seated and enduring differences between male and female personalities styles even languages Elizabeth Aries sees the issue as more complex and dependent on several variables among them the person s status role goals conversational partners and the characteristics of the situational context Aries discusses why we emphasize the differences between the sexes the ways in which these are exaggerated and how we may be perpetuating the very stereotypes we wish to abandon For psychologists and researchers of gender and communication this book will illuminate recent studies in gender relations For general readers it will offer a stimulating counterpoint to prevailing views

Gender, Behavior, and Health Samiha El-Katsha,Susan Watts,2002 An estimated 200 million people in the world suffer from schistosomiasis bilharzia and according to the World Health Organization it ranks second behind malaria in terms of socioeconomic and public health importance in tropical and subtropical areas The disease was present in Egypt in the Old Kingdom c 2600 BCE and in 1998 it was estimated that almost six million Egyptians one fifth of the rural population were infected Thus it remains one of the most serious public health problems in rural Egypt This study is the first to paint a broad picture of schistosomiasis in rural Egypt The authors research in three Nile Delta villages between 1991 and 1997 provides an in depth community level view of patterns of transmission and strategies for control An analysis of recent research and policy presents the national context for the study Schistosomiasis is primarily a behavioral disease associated with human behavior in relation to water especially canals strategies for disease control and treatment need to consider what people do where when and why Gender Behavior and Health stresses an area of particular concern to social scientists gender issues are most fully revealed at the local level where an infection such as schistosomiasis is transmitted diagnosed treated and ultimately it is hoped prevented This book is unique in presenting schistosomiasis primarily from the viewpoint of the social sciences yet fully incorporating material from the biomedical sciences and other
