The General Reader and the Academy Leah Tether, 2019-05-30 Penguin Classics have built their reputation as one of the largest and most successful modern imprints for classic texts on the notion of the general reader Following an interrogation of this idea Leah Tether investigates the publication of medieval French literature on this list and shines a light on the drivers motivations negotiations and decision making processes behind it Focusing on the medieval French texts published between c 1956 and 2000 Tether demonstrates that rather than Penguin s frequently cited general reader a more academic market may have contributed to ensuring the success of these titles Women Readers and the Ideology of Gender in Old French Verse Romance Roberta L. Krueger, 2005-02-17 This study challenges the view that all courtly literature promoted the social status of women Unlike previous books which focused on knights it starts from the perspective of the woman reader listener Using reader response theory feminist criticism and recent historical studies it suggests that romances taught gender roles often inviting readers to criticise and resist them
